HISTORY

OF THE

OFFICES OF THE SECRETARIES OF STATE,

1253 to 1888.

THE earliest mention of a Secretary to The Sovereign occurs in the 37th year of the reign of Henry III, 1253.

There was only one Principal Secretary of State until the 30th year of the reign of Henry VIII, 1539, when the number was increased to two, both being of equal rank and authority.

Upon the union with Scotland, in the 6th year of the reign of Queen Anne, 1708, a third Principal Secretary of State was added, viz., for Scotch Affairs, but this appointment ceased in January, 1746.

In the 8th year of the reign of George III, January 20, 1768, a Principal Secretary of State for the American or Colonial Department was added, who was styled "Secretary of State for the Colonies," but this appointment was abolished in 1782 (Act 25 Geo. III. c. 82).

At the time when only two Principal Secretaries of State existed, the duties were divided between the North and South Departments—the Northern Department, or Province, included the Low Countries, Germany, Denmark, Sweden, Poland, Russia, &c.; and the Southern Department, or Province, France, Switzerland, Italy, Spain, Portugal, and Turkey, &c.

In the 17th year of the reign of George III, March 27, 1782, the terms "Northern" and "Southern" were discontinued; when the duties were divided between the "Home" and "Foreign" Departments—the affairs of Ireland and the Colonies devolving upon the elder of the two Secretaries.

In the 29th year of the reign of George III, July 17, 1794, a Principal Secretary of State for War was appointed; and the business of the Colonies, which had hitherto been carried on at the Home Department, was transferred to that Secretary, March 17, 1801.

In the 17th year of the reign of Victoria, June 12, 1854, a Fourth Principal Secretary of State was appointed, when the business of the War Department was separated from the Colonial Department.

In the 22nd year of the reign of Victoria, September 2, 1858, on the abolition of the East India Company's Charter, a Fifth Principal Secretary of State was appointed for the Affairs of India.

There are now Five Secretaries of State, viz., for the Home, Foreign, Colonial, War, and India Departments.

* Personal Allowance.

FORM OF INSTRUCTIONS TO PERSONS WHO MAY DESIRE TO COMMUTE
CIVIL COMPENSATION ALLOWANCES, UNDER THE PENSIONS COMMUTA-
TION ACT, 1871 (34 and 35 Vict., c. 36).***

1. Any person who has retired or has been removed from a public civil office in consequence of the abolition of his office, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organization of the Department to which he belonged, to whom an annual pension has been granted by way of compensation for such retirement or removal, and who may be desirous of commuting such pension under the Pensions Commutation Act of 1871, must make application in writing to the head or heads of the Department to which he belonged, stating his desire so to commute, and furnishing information as to his age, the office which he held, and the amount of his compensation allowance.

2. If the head of the Department to which he belonged shall think proper to recommend the commutation under the fourth clause of the 4th section of the Act, the person will be so informed by the head of the Department, and his application will be forwarded to the Commutation Board for consideration.

3. The person will then receive further instructions from that Board.

4. The Commutation Board will require the person to give such information as to his health and habits as is usual in the case of persons proposing to assure their lives in assurance companies, and he will be required to submit himself for personal examination at the office of the Board at the National Debt Office, 19, Old Jewry, in the City of London.

5. The basis of the commutation will be the following Table, subject to an addition of years of age in the case of impaired lives.

6. The amount of money to be paid in commutation of the pension will be fixed by the Treasury on the recommendation of the Commutation Board. The applicant will then be informed of the amount, and he will have the option of withdrawing his application on the payment of a fee of 3*l.* 3*s.* within 30 days after receiving that notice.

7. If the applicant shall not withdraw his application and pay the above fee within that period the decision will be considered final, and the commutation of pension will take place absolutely.

PRECEDENCE OF DIPLOMATIC AGENTS.

(In force, January 1888.)

REGULATIONS annexed to the VIENNA CONGRESS TREATY, of June 9, 1815.

IN order to prevent the inconveniences which have frequently occurred, and which might again arise, from claims of precedence among different Diplomatic Agents, the Plenipotentiaries of the Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris have agreed on the following Articles, and they think it their duty to invite the Plenipotentiaries of other Crowned Heads to adopt the same regulation:—

ARTICLE I.—Diplomatic Agents are divided into three classes:—That of Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios; that of Envoys, Ministers, or other persons accredited to Sovereigns: that of Chargés d’Affaires accredited to Ministers for Foreign Affairs.

II. Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios, only, have the representative character.

III. Diplomatic Agents on an extraordinary mission have not, on that account, any superiority of rank.

IV. Diplomatic Agents shall take precedence in their respective classes, according to the date of the official notification of their arrival. The present Regulation shall not cause any innovation with regard to the Representatives of the Pope.

V. A uniform mode shall be determined in each State for the reception of Diplomatic Agents of each class.

VI. Relations of consanguinity, or of family alliance between Courts, confer no precedence on their Diplomatic Agents. The same rule also applies to political alliances.

VII. In Acts or Treaties between several Powers which grant alternate precedence, the order which is to be observed in the signatures shall be decided by lot between the Ministers.

The present Regulation is inserted in the Protocol of the Plenipotentiaries of the Eight Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris at their sitting of the 19th March, 1815.

Signed in the alphabetical order of the Courts by the Principal Plenipotentiaries of Austria, (Espagne) Spain, France, Great Britain, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, Sweden,

Protocol of Conference of the Five Powers. Aix-la-Chapelle, November 21, 1818. (Ministers Resident.)

IN order to avoid inconvenient discussions which might in future arise upon a point of Diplomatic Etiquette, which appears not to have been anticipated in the Annex to the Treaty of Vienna, whereby questions of precedence were regulated, it is agreed between the Five Courts, that Ministers Resident accredited to them shall form, with respect to their precedence, an intermediate class between Ministers of the Second Class and Chargés d’Affaires.

PRECEDENCE between CONSULAR OFFICERS and NAVAL and MILITARY OFFICERS.

(In force, January 1888.)

The comparative rank of Consular Officers, and of Officers in Her Majesty's Naval and Military Services is as follows:

Agents and Consuls-General rank with, but after, Major-Generals and Rear-Admirals.

Consuls-General rank with, but after, Brigadiers and Commodores.

Consuls rank with, but after, Colonels, and Captains, R.N., of three years' standing, and before all other such Captains.

Vice-Consuls rank with, but after, Majors, Lieutenants, R.N., and Navigating Lieutenants of eight years' standing.

Consular-Agents rank with, but after, Captains in the Army, and other Lieutenants and Navigating Lieutenants.

Consular Officers will take rank in their respective grades amongst their Colleagues at the Port of their Residence, in conformity with the Rules prescribed by the Congress of Vienna for Diplomatic Agents; viz.: Priority of seniority according to Official Title, and to Recognition.

PRECEDENCE between MEMBERS of the DIPLOMATIC SERVICE and NAVAL and MILITARY OFFICERS attached to EMBASSIES and MISSIONS Abroad.

(In force, January 1888.)

Naval and Military Officers holding naval or military rank above that of Post Captain in the Navy or Colonel in the Army, who may be attached to Her Majesty's Embassies or Missions for special purposes, have Place and Precedence next in succession to the Head of the Mission for the time being, whatever his designation may be.

Naval and Military Officers holding naval or military rank as Post Captain in the Navy or Colonel in the Army, or naval or military rank of a lower order, who may be attached to Her Majesty's Embassies or Missions for special purposes, have Place and Precedence next in succession to the Secretary of Embassy or of Legation.

REGULATIONS for FOREIGN OFFICE TRANSLATORS.

1. These appointments, the number of which is limited to three, are open to Clerks on the establishment of the Foreign Office, after completion of one year's service, and may be held until the rank of Assistant or Acting Assistant Clerk is attained.

2. Candidates will be required to undergo an examination before the Civil Service Commissioners, and to satisfy the Commissioners that they possess the requisite practical knowledge of the languages in which they are examined, and that they are able to translate such languages quickly and correctly into good English. In the event of two or more candidates presenting themselves for one vacancy, the candidate who obtains the largest number of marks will receive the appointment. The qualifying languages will be either Italian, or Spanish, or Russian, in addition to which candidates must pass a test examination in German. The Translators will not be required to pass examinations in Dutch, Danish, Portuguese, or Swedish, unless they wish to do so; but the Secretary of State expects that they will among them acquire sufficient proficiency in those languages to make translations from them if required.

Two of these allowances cannot be permanently held by the same Translator.

3. The Translators will be expected to prepare all translations required for the use of the Foreign Office.

In case, however, of great pressure, or of documents being received in any languages other than those mentioned above, assistance may be obtained through the Civil Service Commissioners on sanction being received from the Under-Secretary of State.

4. The Translators will rank according to their seniority in the Office.

5. It will be the duty of the Senior Translator, or in his absence of the Second Translator, to receive and distribute papers requiring translation; to superintend the work as far as may be possible; to apply to the Under-Secretary of State for assistance when needed; and to arrange questions of leave, and such matters as relate to the ordinary duties of the Translators.

6. Should a Translatorship be temporarily vacated in consequence of one of the Translators becoming an Acting Assistant Clerk, or effecting a temporary exchange into the Diplomatic Service, any Clerk who is eligible, or in case of there being no candidate among the Clerks, the member of the Diplomatic Service with whom the exchange is made, may, after examination before the Civil Service Commissioners, occupy the appointment for the period during which it is vacated, and receive the allowance attached to it.

The Secretary of State may, if he considers it desirable, appoint any Clerk who has held such an acting appointment to the next actual vacancy among the Translators, without further examination.

7. In case there should be no candidate for a vacant Translatorship, or that the candidates should fail to pass the necessary examination before the Civil Service Commissioners, one or both the other Translators will be permitted, if duly qualified, to undertake temporarily the duties of the vacant appointment, and to receive the allowance attached to it, on the understanding that the vacancy will be filled up as soon as circumstances will permit.

Foreign Office, October 1, 1886.

* These appointments are filled up by limited competition. For specimen of Examination Papers, see page 324.

Candidates who have passed the first public examination in Classics at one of the Universities in Great Britain or Ireland, or at the Royal Academy at Woolwich, or one of the public examinations for the Army or Navy, will be exempted from being examined in Latin; but candidates claiming this exemption must, on going up for examination, exhibit to the Civil Service Commissioners a certificate from the duly constituted authorities, examiners, or others, under whom they have been examined, that they have passed the first public examination in Classics, in whatever manner that examination may have been conducted, and to whatever point directed.

[Clause II. is suspended in competitive examinations.]

REGULATIONS.Period of Service of Attachés.*

I. The services of Attachés will reckon from the date of the certificate granted by the Civil Service Commissioners, and will be considered as probationary for two years from that date, during which period the Attachés must have been employed for 6 months in the Foreign Office, and must also have actually resided at one of Her Majesty's Embassies or Missions abroad, or have been actually employed in the Foreign Office for such a time as in the aggregate will make up a further period of eighteen months, exclusive of any leave of absence, during either period. The time, however, necessarily employed in journeys to and from their posts will be allowed to count towards the completion of the required term. If these conditions as to employment and residence have not been fulfilled at the expiration of two years from the date of the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, the probationary period will be prolonged until they have been fulfilled.

Commissions as Third Secretaries, and a Salary of £150 a-year.

II. and III. Commissions as Third Secretaries under Her Majesty's Sign-Manual will be granted to Attachés, on the termination of the probationary period, and on the fulfilment of the conditions specified in the present Regulations, together with a Salary at the rate of 150*l*. a-year, provided that their general character and conduct, during the time they have served, have been satisfactory, and that the Minister under whom they have last served certifies that, as far as he has the means of forming an opinion, they understand and speak French well, and also one other foreign language.

Allowance of £100 a year for Knowledge of Public Law.

IV. Third Secretaries who may after examination satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that they possess a competent knowledge of public law, will receive while serving in that class an additional allowance of 100*l*. a-year. (Those who may be desirous of being so examined should apply to the Foreign Office, which will make arrangements with the Civil Service Commissioners for their examination.) [See also page 252.]

Second Secretaries.

V. Second Secretaries will constitute an intermediate Class between 3rd Secretaries and Secretaries of Legation. They will receive a minimum salary of 300*l*. a-year, increasing by 15*l*. a-year until it reaches a maximum of 450*l*. a-year. But Second Secretaries at those posts to which a higher salary than 300*l*. a-year is assigned will not receive this annual increment until they shall be entitled by length of service to a salary greater than that so assigned.

Employment and Designation of Second and Third Secretaries.

VI. Secretaries of the Second and Third Classes may, at the discretion of the Secretary of State, be appointed indiscriminately to serve either in an Embassy or Mission, without reference to their previous employment in one or other of them. They are to be designated as Third or Second Secretary in the specific Embassy or Mission in which they may at that time be employed, but not as Third or Second Secretary of Embassy or Legation.

Special Allowance of £100 a-year for Languages.

VII. Any Secretary of Embassy or of Legation, Second or Third Secretary or Attaché on probation, who shall be reported by the head of the Mission in which he is employed to possess a competent knowledge, colloquial or otherwise, for ordinary purposes, of the Russian, Turkish, Persian, Arabic, Japanese, or Chinese language, while serving in any country where such language is vernacular, shall receive a special allowance of 100*l*. a-year over and above any other salary or allowance which he may be in receipt of.

* For specimen of Examination Papers for Attachéships, see page 330.

Rules as to Pensions of the Fourth Class.

VIII. In virtue of Her Majesty's Commissions, the service of Second and Third Secretaries will count for their pensions, under the Act of 32 & 33 Vict., cap. 43, from the date of the issue of their first Commission; but the amount of pension to be assigned to them will be calculated, so long as they remain Second or Third Secretaries, for each year that has elapsed since the date of their first Commission, at one-thirtieth part of the last salary of which they were in receipt at the time of the pension being granted, provided that no pension shall continue to be issued to a person not incapacitated by ill-health, medically certified, who may decline active service before he has reached the sixtieth year of his age, after which age no person shall be required to serve as Second or Third Secretary.

Period of Service in the same Embassy or Mission.

IX. Second or Third Secretaries and Attachés, as a general rule, will not be employed for more than two years in the same Embassy or Mission, exclusive of the periods during which they may have been absent on leave. But the Secretary of State reserves to himself full power to extend the term beyond two years in every case in which he judges that there are special public reasons for so doing.

Salary of Secretary of Legation.

X. The minimum salary of a Secretary of Legation will be 500*l.* a year.

Travelling Expenses.

XI. Secretaries of Embassy or Legation, Second and Third Secretaries and Attachés, will, on their first appointment, or on any subsequent removal for promotion, or other public reason, be allowed their actual travelling expenses by land, or the actual amount of their passages by sea, either from England to their post, or from one foreign post to another (in the case of Secretaries of Embassy or Legation, and of Second Secretaries, the like expenses will be allowed to them for one servant, if they have one); and they will further be allowed subsistence money for themselves, but not for their servant, at the rate of one pound a day, while travelling by land, and by sea if subsistence is not included in the passage money. In the event of a passage being afforded to Secretaries or Attachés on board one of Her Majesty's ships of war, the allowances made will be in conformity with the Admiralty Regulations; but the travelling expenses and subsistence of the families of Secretaries or Attachés will not be allowed.

No allowance will be made to Members of the Diplomatic Service for journeys undertaken for their own convenience, in pursuance of leave of absence.

Secretaries and Attachés may be required to carry Despatches.

XII. In the case of any journey of which the expense is to be allowed, all Secretaries and Attachés will be bound to take charge of despatches, if required; and in that case they will be expected to perform the journey without delaying on the road.

Members of the Diplomatic Service to go to any Posts to which they may be Appointed.

XIII. It is to be distinctly understood that, in future, all the Members of the Diplomatic Service will be expected to take their turn in whatever part of the world their services may be required; and that, except as regards Tehran and Peking, where no accommodation can be procured for married men, every Secretary or Attaché, whether married or unmarried, must be prepared to go to the post at which the requirements of the public service demand his presence, and to which he may be appointed.

Interchange of Employment between Second and Third Secretaries, and Junior Clerks in the Foreign Office.

XIV. The Secretary of State, should he see occasion, will, for the advantage of the public service, allow Second and Third Secretaries, and Attachés to interchange for a time their duties with Clerks of the two Junior Classes in the Foreign Office; the several parties being bound, for the whole period through which the interchange extends, in every respect to perform the duties and to submit to the obligations attaching to the situation which they may temporarily occupy.

The Secretary of State will, moreover, if he sees reason to do so, direct such temporary interchange of duties to be made, irrespective of the wishes of the parties, between Second or Third Secretaries, or Attachés, and Clerks in the Foreign Office; or he will direct such persons to be employed for a time, at home or abroad, without any interchange, making in either case any allowance to such parties that he may consider just and reasonable.

In the case of temporary interchanges between Secretaries and Clerks, they will respectively rank, in the Embassy or Mission, and Foreign Office, as the case may be, during the period for which the interchange shall last, after the Junior in the class of Secretaries or Clerks to which either of them belongs.

A First-class Junior Clerk who may be permanently transferred to the Diplomatic Service will receive a Commission as Second Secretary; a Second Class Junior Clerk will similarly receive a Commission as Third Secretary.

Junior Clerks in the Foreign Office temporarily employed in a Special or in an Ordinary Embassy or Mission, will in like manner receive Acting Commissions as Second or Third Secretaries, as the Secretary of State may determine.

Annual Reports on Conduct of Junior Secretaries and Attachés.

XV. Heads of Missions will be required to report annually, on the 1st of January in each year to the Secretary of State the mode in which, during so much of the preceding year as they shall have served in such Mission, each Second and Third Secretary and Attaché in his Mission has discharged his public duty, and such reports will be duly considered before any promotion or increase of pay is accorded to the persons to whom they apply. These reports will be considered to be strictly confidential, and it will rest with the Secretary of State to determine as to extenuating circumstances when they are unfavourable.

Promotion and Appointments to High Diplomatic Posts.

XVI. The Secretary of State reserves to himself the power to recommend to the Queen to name any person, even though not in the Diplomatic Service, for the higher and more responsible posts in it, and generally, in regard to all promotions whatever in the Diplomatic Service, the Secretary of State will not be restricted by claims founded on seniority or membership of the profession from making any such selection as on his own responsibility he may deem right.

Duration of Appointments of Heads of Missions.

XVII. The duration of the appointments of Heads of Missions at foreign Courts shall not exceed, though it may be less than, five years; and at the expiration of five years the question of reappointment, though in that case not involving fresh credentials, or of transfer to another Mission, shall be open for consideration. Members of the Diplomatic Service, on attaining the age of 70 years, shall be retired on the pension for which their services may qualify them.

Deductions to be made from Salaries of Heads of Missions on Leave of Absence.

XVIII. With a view to relieve the Heads of Missions on leave of absence on private grounds, the period of sixty days of ordinary leave will reckon from their arrival in this country only, but the deduction from their salaries required to provide for the allowances of the Acting Chargé d'Affaires according to the Regulations which may be in force at the time being, will date as heretofore from their departure from their posts. On the expiration of the above period of sixty days the deduction will be at the rate of one-half of their salaries. Such period of sixty days may either be one of sixty consecutive days, or of sixty days occurring at intervals in the course of one year beginning on the 1st of January and ending on the 31st of December. But Heads of Missions to whom, on the ground of their having remained uninterruptedly at their posts during the year preceding that in which leave is applied for, an accumulated leave of 120 days may be granted by the Secretary of State will, as in the former case, not be subject to be placed on half salary until after the expiration of that period, reckoned from the date of their arrival in this country. Under the Regulation as now amended, the time required for the return journey will not in either case be reckoned as leave, it being expected that, both as regards the homeward and the outward journey, the direct route shall be chosen, and due expedition used. It must be distinctly understood that Heads of Missions will not be allowed to accumulate more than two years' leave, and that the Secretary of State reserves to himself to withhold this permission as often as he may see fit to do so.

Heads of Missions should further understand that leave of absence will, as a rule, only be granted to them when the Secretary of the Mission may be at his post, or, if absent, may be prepared to return and assume his proper position of Chargé d'Affaires. Second or Third Secretaries should not be placed in charge of Missions unless in cases of pressing emergency, and the previous sanction of the Secretary of State should always be obtained, if possible. The allowances to Second and Third Secretaries when acting as Chargé d'Affaires will be, at Embassies at the rate of 3*l*. a-day, and at Legations at the rate of 2*l*. a-day.*

* At the five Missions of Berne, Munich, Stuttgart, Darmstadt, and Beigrade, the allowance remains at the rate of 1*l*. a-day. The allowance at Bucharest and Cairo is at the rate of one-fourth of the salary of the post.

Addresses of Members of the Diplomatic Service. Notice to be given of Addresses of Persons on Leave of Absence, and in the case of Junior Members of intended departure for their posts.

XIX. Members of the Diplomatic Service of all ranks on leave of absence must leave with or send to the Door-keeper of the Foreign Office an address to which letters may be sent for them; and Secretaries and Attachés, previously to leaving England to proceed to or return to their posts, must notify the time of their intended departure to one of the Under-Secretaries of State.

Allowances during War or Interruption of Relations

XX. Should an Ambassador, Minister, or Secretary of whatever class, by reason of war or other interruption of Diplomatic relations, be withdrawn from active service before his services shall have qualified him for a Diplomatic pension of the class under which he would otherwise come, the Secretary of State will, as he may see fit, recommend that a temporary allowance should be assigned to any such person who cannot otherwise be immediately employed, calculated on the rate of pension which he would have earned if he had continued to reside in such capacity, regard being had to the length and general character of his services; such allowance, however, to be strictly subject to the condition in regard to employment specified in the XIth section of the Act of 32nd and 33rd Vict., c. 43, and to cease from the date of the ratification of a Treaty of Peace or the renewal of Diplomatic relations.

Copy of Circular of November 6, 1860.

XXI. It being very desirable that the Members of Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service should clearly understand the duties respectively assigned to them, a copy of the Circular instruction on this subject, addressed to the Heads of Missions by Lord John Russell on the 6th November, 1860, is annexed to these Regulations, and the Secretary of State requests that the rules therein laid down may be duly observed.

Foreign Office, May 1, 1886.

CIRCULAR TO THE HEADS OF MISSIONS OF THE 6th NOVEMBER, 1860.

(Annex to Diplomatic Regulations of May 1, 1886.)

My Lord, Foreign Office, November 6, 1860.

Sir,—I have reason to apprehend that some misconception has prevailed in the minds of Her Majesty's Ambassadors and Ministers as to the nature of the relations between them and their Secretaries and Attachés, and that they have consequently, in many cases, overlooked the fact that the Secretaries and Attachés are public servants appointed by the Secretary of State to perform specific public duties.

It is to be borne in mind that one of the objects for which Secretaries and Attachés are appointed to Embassies and Missions is, that they may be trained up in the junior branches of the Diplomatic Service, and thereby become qualified for filling afterwards higher and more important situations; but this training they cannot receive unless they are employed, according to their several Commissions, in the general business of the Embassy or Mission.

It follows that the Chiefs of Missions should not defeat the above-mentioned purpose by entrusting, at their own discretion, and with reference to their own personal convenience, the management and execution of the public business of their Chanceries to persons out of the regular order. Each member of an Embassy or Mission, whether Secretary, Attaché, or Keeper of the Archives, should hold in the Chancery the position to which he is entitled by office or seniority, and to which he is named by the Secretary of State; and in no case should a junior be arbitrarily preferred to a senior, nor an Attaché to a Secretary, nor a Keeper of the Archives to an Attaché.

A disregard of these principles not only tends to defeat the objects for which the Diplomatic Service is constituted, but is, moreover, among the junior members of that service, a fruitful source of jealousy and disunion.

On these grounds I have thought it expedient, with Her Majesty's approbation, to lay down certain fixed Rules for the regulation of Her Majesty's Embassies and Legations, in which the nature and amount of the business to be transacted renders an adherence to fixed Rules peculiarly important; and I am convinced that if those Rules are strictly attended to, the general interests of Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, both present and prospective, will be greatly advanced, and the convenience and comfort of the Chiefs and subordinate members of the service will be essentially promoted.

The principle on which the Rules which I now proceed to lay down are founded is to apply, as far as possible, to Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service abroad the system on which the business of the Foreign Office is carried on at home.

In the Foreign Office the Under Secretaries of State, the Senior and Assistant and Junior Clerks, have their respective duties to perform, and they do perform them without clashing or interfering with each other.

In like manner Her Majesty's Secretaries of Embassy or Legation, the Senior and Junior Paid Attachés, and the Unpaid Attachés, have in Her Majesty's Embassies and Legations their regular and appointed positions and duties; and it is only necessary to bear this analogy in mind, and to carry it out in practice, in order to ensure the efficient and harmonious working of Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service abroad.

The manner in which this principle is to be applied will readily occur to such of Her Majesty's Ambassadors and Ministers as are conversant with the working of the system in the Foreign Office; but I consider it desirable to explain its application in detail.

Accordingly, the Secretary of Embassy or Legation must be deemed to hold, as regards the Chief of the Mission, the same position which an Under-Secretary of State holds as regards the Secretary of State, and therefore the whole public business of the Embassy or Mission should pass through his hands, and, subject to the orders of the Chief, should be carried on under his immediate superintendence.

The public and official despatches and papers will, if not opened by the Ambassador or Minister himself upon their arrival, reach him through the Secretary of Embassy or Legation; and the directions of the Chief in regard to all matters of public business will pass through the Secretary, and be executed under his superintendence and control. The principle on which this regulation is founded scarcely needs an explanation, for it is obvious that the public interests require that the Secretary, who may at any moment, in consequence of the absence of the Chief be called upon to conduct the public business on his own responsibility, should be kept fully informed as to the course of those matters with which he may have to deal.

In the occasional or accidental absence of the Secretary from the residence of the Mission, or from the Chancery, the Senior Attaché in attendance will undertake his duties, so that no inconvenience or delay need arise in the transaction of the public business.

As regards the general duties of Attachés, the Senior will, in the Chancery, occupy the position which a Senior Clerk occupies in the Foreign Office. He will be responsible for the correct performance of the details of the Chancery work; he will assign to the other Attachés their respective portions of it; he will have the general custody of the Cyphers and Decyphers; and he will be responsible for keeping the accounts of the Extraordinary Expenditure, and for submitting them to the Chief of the Embassy or Mission for approval and transmission to England as soon as possible after the expiration of each quarter. Moreover, as stated in my Circular despatch of the 10th February last the Senior Attaché for the time being will, if no other person has, with the sanction of the Secretary of State, been appointed for that special duty, have the custody of the Archives. He will be held responsible for their being kept in proper order; for the correspondence being regularly registered; and for the letters and drafts being properly docketed and filled up before they are consigned to the Archives.

The position and duties of the Keeper of Archives in those Embassies or Missions to which such an officer is attached will correspond with those of the Librarian of the Foreign Office, though his duties in regard to the correspondence will commence at an earlier period than that of that officer. Those duties will be to keep the papers, whether bound or unbound, in good order, so that they may be at any time easily accessible; to see that the papers are at stated intervals bound in volumes; and to make references and Memoranda for the information of the Ambassador or Minister, and for the general requirements of the Chancery.

The order of precedence among the Junior members of Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service will thus be:—

Secretary of Embassy or Legation;

Paid Attachés;

Unpaid Attachés;

Keeper of Archives; and Translator, where a Translator is appointed with the sanction of the Secretary of State.

The foregoing Regulations apply exclusively to the transaction of Public and Official business, and are not intended in any way to interfere with the discretion of the Ambassador or Minister as to the arrangements he may make in regard to his private correspondence. I have only to observe on this point, that if the Ambassador or Minister sees occasion to employ one of the Attachés as his Private Secretary, the manner in which such Attaché should be employed in the transaction of the public business of the Embassy or Mission is not to be affected thereby, but is to continue to be governed by the Rules which I have laid down, and must remain in entire subordination to, and under the control of, the Secretary of Embassy or Legation, and of the Attachés holding a superior position to him in the Chancery.

The Secretary of Embassy or Legation, the First Attaché, and the Keeper of the Archives, should be under no restriction as to the hours at which the Chancery shall be open to them, even if any such restriction is habitually placed on other members of the Mission; and they should each have keys of the presses or boxes in which the Archives and Public Papers are kept.

No person must be employed in the transaction of the public business except those who may be actually members of the Embassy or Legation, or whose employment may be specifically sanctioned for a limited period by the Secretary of State.

I have no doubt that a strict adherence to the Rules I have thus laid down will tend to the regular dispatch of public business, and to the maintenance of harmony among the different members of Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service; while it will also be advantageous to the Chiefs of Missions. It is not my intention by these Regulations to prescribe to those Chiefs any obligation of consulting or of being guided by the opinion of any of the subordinate members of their Mission. On those Chiefs rests the responsibility of the decisions they may come to, and of any course they may determine to pursue, and with them, therefore, must also rest the free choice of the means for arriving at their decisions.

My object in the present communication is to provide that those persons who are appointed by the Secretary of State to definite situations and ranks in Her Majesty's Embassies and Missions shall be employed in the transaction of the public business of such Embassies and Missions in accordance with the purposes for which their appointments have been created.

I am, &c.

J. RUSSELL.

band of black braid, and the Royal cypher and Crown gilt in front; and a Badge of the Regulation size with the Royal Crown and silver greyhound pendent, suspended from the neck by a dark blue riband. This uniform, and more especially the Badge, must be always worn by Messengers when travelling, but the Badge must not be worn at any other time.

The Queen has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those previously in force.

FOREIGN ORDERS.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Excepting in the case of special complimentary missions to Foreign Sovereigns, such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order he will at any future time be allowed to accept the decoration of a higher class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign service, or in the service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Foreign Office, February 3, 1886.

FOREIGN MEDALS.

1. Applications for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or Navy, should be addressed to the Commander-in-Chief or the Lords of the Admiralty, as the case may be, who, if they see fit, may submit the same for Her Majesty's sanction, upon obtaining which they may grant such permission without other formality.

2. Any other British subject, having obtained Her Majesty's permission, is at liberty to accept and wear a Foreign Medal, not being the Decoration of a Foreign Order.

3. No permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

SALISBURY.

Foreign Office, August, 1886.

1. Applications for Foreign Office Passports must be made in writing; and inclosed in a cover addressed to "The Chief Clerk, Foreign Office, London," with the word "PASSPORT" conspicuously written on the cover.

3. Foreign Office Passports are granted only to British-born subjects, or to such foreigners as have become naturalized either by Act of Parliament or by a Certificate of Naturalization granted by the Secretary of State for the Home Department. When the party is a "Naturalized British subject," he will be so designated in his passport; and if his certificate of naturalization be dated subsequently to the 24th of August, 1850, and previously to the 1st of August, 1858, his passport will be marked as good for one year only; or should the certificate be dated subsequently to the 1st of August, 1858, his passport will in that case be marked as good for six months only, except in cases where a licence for a longer period of residence abroad has been granted by the Secretary of State for the Home Department: but this regulation will not preclude any person whom it affects from obtaining, at the Foreign Office, at any future time, on his producing his old passport, a fresh passport in exchange for it for a further limited period, without being required to pay a fresh charge. A Foreign Office passport granted to a British-born subject, or to a "Naturalized British subject" who has been naturalized by Act of Parliament, or whose certificate of naturalization is dated previously to the 24th of August, 1850, is not limited in point of time, but is available for any time, or for any number of journeys to the Continent. Aliens naturalized as British subjects under the Naturalization Act, 1870 (33 Vict. c. 14), will also receive passports unlimited in point of time, but subject to the qualification mentioned in the 7th Clause of the Act.

5. If the applicant for a passport be a Naturalized British subject, his certificate of naturalization, with his signature subscribed to the oath printed on it, must be forwarded to the Foreign Office with the certificate of identity granted on his behalf; and his certificate of naturalization will be returned with the passport to the person who may have granted the certificate of identity, in order that he may cause such Naturalized British subject to sign the passport in his presence. The agents at the outposts are not authorized to grant passports to naturalized British subjects, and such persons, if resident in London or in the suburbs, must apply personally for their passports at the Foreign Office.

7. A passport cannot be issued by the Foreign Office, or by an agent at an outpost, on behalf of a person already abroad; such person, being a British-born subject, should apply for one to the nearest British Mission or Consulate. A passport cannot be issued abroad to a naturalized British subject, unless naturalized under the Act of 1870, except for a direct journey to England, or in the case of a colonial naturalized subject for a journey to the United Kingdom, or to the colony where he has been naturalized. Neither can a passport granted at the Foreign Office to a naturalized British subject for a limited period be renewed by Her Majesty's Diplomatic or Consular Agents in foreign countries; but only at the Foreign Office.

8. The bearer of every passport granted by the Foreign Office should sign his passport as soon as he receives it : without such signature either the visa may be refused, or the validity of the passport questioned abroad. Travellers who may have any intention of visiting the Russian Empire, or the Turkish Dominions, at any time in the course of their travels, must not quit England without having had their passports visés at the Russian Consulate in London, 17, Great Winchester-street, E.C., or at the Consulate-General of the Sublime Porte, 5, Union-court, Old Broad-street, respectively. Travellers about to proceed to any other country need not obtain the visa of the Diplomatic or Consular Agents of such country, resident in the United Kingdom, except as an additional precaution.

N.B.—Although British subjects are now free to enter Belgium, France, Germany, Holland, Italy, Denmark, Sweden, and Norway, without passports, and the rules about passports have been virtually relaxed in other countries, nevertheless, British subjects without to visit the Continent are recommended not to omit to provide themselves with passports, for even in those countries where they are no longer obligatory, they are found to be convenient, as offering a ready means of identification, and more particularly when letters have to be claimed at a poste restante.

It is further recommended, as a reasonable precaution, that persons holding Passports of old date should either exchange them for fresh Passports on payment of the usual fee of 2s., or should have their old Passports re-issued, before starting on a journey, by the Diplomatic or Consular Authorities of the countries they propose to visit.

An Act to provide for the Payment of DIPLOMATIC SALARIES, ALLOWANCES, AND PENSIONS.

32 & 33 Vict., cap. 43.—2 August, 1869.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the payment of the salaries, allowances, and pensions of persons in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service out of moneys provided by Parliament instead of out of the Consolidated Fund, and otherwise to amend the law respecting the same:

Be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short Title.

1 This Act may be cited as "The Diplomatic Salaries, &c., Act, 1869."

Commencement of Act.

2 This Act shall come into operation as on and from the 1st day of April, 1869, which day is in this Act referred to as "the commencement of this Act."

Interpretation of Terms.

3. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—The term "Treasury" means the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury:

The term "Secretary of State" means that one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State who is entrusted with the Seals of the Department for Foreign Affairs, or performs the duties of that Department.

Sections 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8, and part of Sections 12 and 13 of 2 & 3 Wm. IV, cap. 116, and 22 & 23 Vict., cap. 5, repealed.

4*. Sections 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 of the Act of the session of the 2nd and 3rd Years of William IV, chapter 116, "to provide for the salaries of certain high and judicial officers, and payments hitherto made out of the Civil List revenues," and so much of sections 12 and 13 of the same Act as relates to diplomatic salaries, allowances, and pensions, and the whole of the Act of the session of the 22nd and 23rd years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter 5, "to remove doubts as to the qualification of persons holding diplomatic pensions to sit in Parliament," are hereby repealed, as from the commencement of this Act.

Provided that this repeal shall not affect any pensions now payable under the said Act; and those pensions shall be paid out of the Consolidated Fund, and the accounts thereof shall be laid before Parliament in the same manner as if this Act had not passed.

Salaries, Pensions, &c., Payable out of Annual Votes.

5. After the commencement of this Act all salaries, allowances, and pensions (other than pensions granted before the commencement of this Act) payable to persons in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament, and shall be paid on such days and in such manner as the Treasury may, with the consent of the Secretary of State, from time to time appoint.

Amounts of Diplomatic Pensions.

6. After the commencement of this Act the Treasury, on the recommendation of the Secretary of State, may grant pensions during life to persons in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, not exceeding the salary which the pensioner may be receiving at the time that his active employment ceases, and not exceeding the following amounts; namely:

- (1) 1,700*l.* per annum for a 1st class pension.
- (2) 1,300*l.* per annum for a 2nd class pension.
- (3) 900*l.* per annum for a 3rd class pension.
- (4) 700*l.* per annum for a 4th class pension.

Qualifications for Pension.

7. With respect to the qualifications for pensions under this Act, the following provisions shall have effect:

- (1) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of any class, until the expiration of 15 years from the date of his first commission, and unless he has actually served in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 10 years:
- (2) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of the 1st class unless he has been an Ambassador, and in that capacity has actually resided in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 3 years:
- (3) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of the 2nd class unless he has been an Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary on a Mission of the first class, and in that capacity has actually resided in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 5 years:
- (4) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of the 3rd class unless he has been an Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary on a Mission of the second class, or a Minister Plenipotentiary, or a Minister Resident, or a Chargé d'Affaires and Consul-General in some foreign State or States, or a Chargé d'Affaires in some foreign State or States, where no other Diplomatic Representative is usually appointed to reside on behalf of Her Majesty, or an Agent and Consul-General in some foreign State or States where his duties have been generally of a political character, and in one or more of those capacities has actually resided in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 5 years:
- (5) A period of residence in any capacity which, if continued, would be a qualification for any class of pension may count as part of the qualification for a lower class of pension.

Pension to Invalid Secretaries.

8. Where a person holding a commission as Second or Third Secretary in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, and having served in such capacities, or one of them, for a period not less than five years, is constrained, from infirmity of mind or body, to leave that service before the completion of the period which would qualify him for a pension under the other provisions of this Act, the Treasury may grant to him an allowance during his life, not exceeding for each year of his service in the said capacities, or one of them (if he has only served in one), one-thirtieth part of the amount of the annual salary which he may be receiving at the time that he leaves the service.

Allowance in case of Bodily Injury.

9. Where a person in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, by reason of severe bodily injury, occasioned without his own default in the discharge of his duty, is constrained to leave that service before the completion of the period which would qualify him for a pension under the other provisions of this Act, the Treasury may grant to him a gratuity not exceeding the amount of three months' salary for every two years of service, or a pension not exceeding ten-sixtieths of the annual salary which he may be receiving at the time that he leaves the service.

* The first paragraph of this Section was repealed by Act 46 and 47 Vict., c. 39.

Temporary Pension on Rupture of Diplomatic Relations.

10. Where a person in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, who is serving in any foreign State in any capacity, and is, by reason of war or any interruption of diplomatic relations, withdrawn from active service before he has completed the term of service and period of residence which, under the provisions of this Act, would entitle him to a pension for having served in such capacity, the Treasury, at the request of the Secretary of State, may grant to him a temporary allowance calculated on the rate of pension which he would have earned if he had continued to reside in such capacity, regard being had to the length and character of his services.

Every such allowance shall cease from the date of the ratification of a Treaty of Peace or the renewal of diplomatic relations.

Forfeiture of Pension on Refusal to Serve again.

11. If any person who is in receipt of a pension or temporary allowance under this Act, and has not attained the age of sixty years, and is not incapacitated by infirmity of mind or body (proved to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State, by a medical certificate or otherwise), refuses, when required so to do by the Secretary of State, to proceed to any Mission which is of the same rank as that in respect of which his pension was granted, or to some Mission of higher rank, he shall forfeit his right to the pension and allowance.

Suspension of Payment on Holding other Offices.

12. Where a person having any pension or allowance under this Act is appointed to any office of profit, under the Crown, or to any office the salary of which is payable out of the Consolidated Fund or moneys provided by Parliament, whether such office is in the United Kingdom or not, his pension and allowance, so long as he continues to hold such office, shall, if the emoluments of such office are equal to or larger than the pension or allowance, be suspended, and if the emoluments of such office are less than the pension or allowance, be diminished by the amount of such emoluments.

13. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time to determine the foreign States the Envoys Extraordinary and Ministers Plenipotentiary at which are thereafter to be deemed on First and Second Class Missions respectively for the purposes of a pension under this Act.

Such determination shall be signified in writing under the hand of the Secretary of State to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen days after the signing thereof, if Parliament be then sitting, and if Parliament be not then sitting, within fourteen days after the commencement of the next session.

The arrangement existing at the commencement of this Act as to such First and Second Class Missions shall, until and except so far as altered under the provisions of this section, continue in force for the purposes of a pension under this Act.

Employment beyond Limits of State.

14. Where a person in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service is actually employed beyond the limits of the foreign State in which, under the terms of his credentials or commission, he should properly reside, and is so employed on a special diplomatic mission or service, whether in or out of Her Majesty's dominions, or (being a Second or Third Secretary) is so employed for the advantage of the public service in the Department of Foreign Affairs in London, he shall, for the purposes of a pension under this Act, be deemed, during the time that he is so actually employed, to have been actually residing in such foreign State.

Pension on Transfer from Civil (or Consular) to Diplomatic Service, and vice versa.

15. Where a person in the Consular Service or in any other branch of the Civil Service of Her Majesty is appointed to some employment in the Diplomatic Service, or where a person in the Diplomatic Service is appointed to some employment in the Civil Service of the State in the Department of Foreign Affairs in London, and such person may suffer prejudice in regard to his retiring allowance by reason of his not continuing in his former service, the Treasury may award to him, on his retirement from active service, such pension or superannuation allowance under this Act and the Superannuation Act, 1859, or one of them, as in their opinion will prevent his suffering such prejudice and is just, having regard to his services; but save as aforesaid a person receiving a pension under this Act shall not be entitled to any superannuation allowance under the Superannuation Act, 1859. (22 & 23 Vict., cap. 26.)

Pension, &c., to be Free from Taxes.

16. Every pension, allowance, and gratuity under this Act shall be paid to the person entitled to the same without any abatement or deduction in respect of any taxes or duties at present existing, except the tax upon income.

Pensioner may Sit in House of Commons.

17. A pension under this Act shall not disqualify the holder for being elected or sitting or voting as a member of the House of Commons.

An Act to remove doubts as to the Qualification of PERSONS HOLDING CIVIL SERVICE PENSIONS, OR RECEIVING SUPERANNUATION ALLOWANCES, TO SIT IN PARLIAMENT.

32 & 33 Vict., cap. 15.—24 June, 1869.

WHEREAS the Acts of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV., Chapter 24, and of the 22nd year of Her Majesty, Chapter 26, regulate the conditions on which pensions, compensations, and allowances shall be made to persons in respect of their having held civil offices in Her Majesty's service:

And whereas doubts have arisen as to whether such pensions, compensations, or allowances, being those of reward and recompense for civil services authorized by Parliament, come within the provisions of the Act of the 6th year of Queen Anne, Chapter 7, which renders any person holding a pension from the Crown during pleasure incapable of being elected or of sitting and voting as a Member of the House of Commons:

Be it therefore enacted; and it is hereby enacted and declared by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same as follows:

1. That pensions, compensations, or allowances granted for civil services according to the provisions of the aforesaid Acts of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV. and the 22nd year of Her Majesty, or any other Act or Acts whatever, shall not disqualify the holder from being elected or sitting or voting as a member of the House of Commons.

2. Nothing contained in this Act shall affect any of the provisions of the aforesaid Acts of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV., and 22nd Victoria, Chapter 26.

And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the superannuation allowances to be granted to such officers and clerks who shall have entered the public service prior to the 5th day of August, 1829 (except only as hereinafter is authorized), shall not exceed the following proportions with reference to the amount of their salaries and the periods of their services respectively; videlicet:—

To an officer, clerk, or person who shall have served 10 years and upwards and under 15 years, any annual allowance not exceeding in amount 4-12ths of the annual salary and emoluments of his office:

And for 50 years or upwards, any annual allowance not exceeding the net amount of the salary and emoluments of his office.

Superannuations not to be granted on advanced Amount of Salary received for less than Three years.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the superannuation allowance to be granted to any officer or person after the passing of this Act, shall not be computed upon the amount of the salary enjoyed by him at the time of his retirement, unless he shall have been in the receipt of the same, or in the class from which he retires, for a period of at least three years immediately before the granting of such superannuation allowance; and in case he shall not have enjoyed his then existing salary or have been in such class for that period, such superannuation allowance shall be calculated upon the average amount of salary received by such person for three years next preceding the commencement of such allowance.

No Compensation to be charged upon the Funds of the Department nor without Concurrence of His Majesty in Council or of the Treasury.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That no compensation for any office abolished, nor any special allowance or remuneration for good services to any person holding or having held any civil office in any public department, shall be charged upon the incidents or any other fund of any such department; and that no such compensation, nor any allowance or compensation in the nature of superannuation or retired allowance or reward to any such person in respect of his having held any public office or employment, or having been engaged in any public service, shall be granted, allowed, or paid, other than under the authority of an Order of His Majesty in Council, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury or any 3 or more of them.

No Superannuation or Compensation to be enjoyed with Salary for efficient Services.

XX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any person enjoying any superannuation allowance, in consequence of retiring from office on account of age, infirmity, or any other cause, or enjoying any compensation for past services upon the abolition or reduction of office, shall be appointed to fill any office in any public department, every such allowance or compensation shall cease to be paid for any period subsequent to such appointment if the annual amount of the profits of the office to which he shall be appointed shall be equal to those of the office formerly held by him, and in case they shall not be equal to those of his former office then no more of such superannuation allowance or compensation shall be paid to him than what with the salary of his new appointment shall be equal to that of his former office.

Not to extend to Half-pay, &c.

XXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained with respect to compensation, superannuation, or allowance for Civil Services shall extend or be construed to extend to any military or naval half-pay, or allowance in lieu of half-pay, or to any military or naval allowance or pensions granted or to be granted under the regulations of any Order of His Majesty in Council, in any of the respective Departments of the Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Secretary at War, and the Master General of the Ordnance, except as hereinafter is provided with respect to the same.

Account of Increase and Diminution of Public Salaries, Pensions, and Allowances to be annually laid before Parliament.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That between the 1st day of February and the 25th day of March in every year, or if Parliament shall not be sitting during any part of that period, then within 20 days after the next meeting of Parliament, there shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament an account of every increase and diminution which shall have taken place within the preceding year, ending on the 31st day of December, in the number of persons employed in all public offices or departments under the Crown, and in the salaries, emoluments, allowances, and expenses which shall have taken place or been paid, granted, received, or incurred for and in respect of all officers and persons belonging to or employed in all such public offices or departments, specifying the amount and nature thereof, and distinguishing every increase and diminution in the amount of all allowances or compensations granted as retired allowances or superannuations to any person having held any office, place, or employment in any such public office or department, and also the time and length of service of every such person, and the amount of the salary and emoluments received by such person immediately preceding his superannuation or retirement, and the nature of his services, and the grounds upon which such increase or diminution in the establishment of every such public office or department, or of any salary, emolument, allowance, compensation, or superannuation, shall have been granted or made; and also specifying the name of every person receiving such allowance or compensation who may have died in the course of the year, together with the amount of the annual allowance payable to such person.

Civil Allowances, &c., to be laid before Parliament.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted That accounts of all compensations for offices abolished, and of all allowances in the nature of superannuation or retired allowances to all other persons in respect of their having held any public office or employment under the Crown, shall annually, at the period lastly provided, be laid before the Commons House of Parliament.

Half-pay and Military and Naval Pensions to be laid before Parliament in separate Estimates.

XXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all half-pay and allowances in lieu of half-pay in the several departments of the army, ordnance, navy, and marines, and all military and naval allowances or pensions granted or which shall be granted in any of such departments under the authority of any Order in Council, shall be annually laid before the Commons House of Parliament, in separate estimates, at the same time with the ordinary estimates of those respective departments, and shall be kept distinct from all pensions, compensations, superannuation and retired allowances in any of the civil offices of those departments respectively.

Compensations not provided for to be charged on Funds of Departments.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That the compensations, superannuations, and allowances authorized as well by this as any former Act or Acts shall, when not specially provided for by Parliament, be charged upon and paid and payable by the respective departments or offices in which the persons receiving such allowances shall have served.

Average of Emoluments to be made by Heads of Departments.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the person or persons at the head of any department in which any fees or other sources of profit may form part of the emoluments of any office in such department, to fix, with the approbation of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or for the Commissioners of the Admiralty if the office shall be in that department, an average sum upon which the compensation or superannuation allowance shall be granted [as well as the sum to be annually abated, as hereinbefore provided, from such person's salary, in respect of such emoluments*], which sum so to be fixed shall not exceed the average amount of such emoluments for the 3 last preceding years.

Act not to give an absolute Right to Allowances, or to prevent Dismissal of Persons for Misconduct.

XXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to give any person an absolute right to compensation for past services, or to any superannuation or retiring allowance under this Act, or to deprive the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the heads or principal officers of the respective departments, of their power and authority to dismiss any person from the public service without compensation.

(2.) An Act to amend the Laws concerning Superannuations and other Allowances to Persons having held Civil Offices in the Public Service.

22 Vict., c. 26.—19 April, 1859.

Ordinary Rate of Superannuation Allowance.

II. Subject to the exceptions and provisions hereinafter contained, the superannuation allowance to be granted after the commencement of this Act to persons who shall have served in an established capacity in the permanent Civil Service of the State, whether their remuneration be computed by day pay, weekly wages, or annual salary, and for whom provision shall not otherwise have been made by Act of Parliament, or who may not be specially excepted by the authority of Parliament, shall be as follows; (that is to say.)

To any person who shall have served 10 years and upwards and under 11 years, an annual allowance of 10-60ths of the annual salary and emoluments of his office.

For 11 years, and under 12 years, an annual allowance of 11-60ths of such salary and emoluments.

And in like manner a further addition to the annual allowance of 1-60th in respect of each additional year of such service, until the completion of a period of service of 40 years, when the annual allowance of 40-60ths may be granted; and no addition shall be made in respect of any service beyond 40 years.

Provided always, that if any question should arise in any department of the public service as to the claim of any person or class of persons for superannuation under this clause, it shall be referred to the Commissioners of the Treasury, whose decision shall be final.

Application of Act to Persons already in the Civil Service, but without Prejudice to existing Rights.

III. Nothing herein contained shall interfere with the right to the officers and clerks who entered the public service prior to the 5th day of August, 1829, of such superannuation allowances as might hereafter have been granted to them under section 9 of the said Act of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV, or shall prevent, restrict, or diminish, any others superannuation allowance, pension, gratuity, or compensation which, if this Act had not been passed, might hereafter have been granted to any person who shall have entered the public service before the passing of this Act, but, except as aforesaid, the provisions hereinafter contained shall apply as well to persons who have already entered the public service, whether before or after the said 5th day of August, 1829, as to those who may hereafter enter the public service.

Provision for computing Amount of Superannuation to Persons holding professional and other special Offices.

IV. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury from time to time, by any order or warrant, to declare that for the due and efficient discharge of the duties of any office or class of offices to be specified in such order or warrant, professional or other peculiar qualifications, not ordinarily to be acquired in the public service, are required, and that it is for the interest of the public that persons should be appointed thereto at an age exceeding that at which public service ordinarily begins; and by the same or any other order or warrant to direct that when any person now holding or who may hereafter be appointed to such office, or any of such class of offices, shall retire from the public service, a number of years not exceeding 20, to be specified in the said order or warrant, shall, in computing the amount of superannuation allowance which may be granted to him under the foregoing section of this Act, be added to the number of years during which he may have actually served, and also to direct that in respect of such office or class of offices, the period of service required to entitle the holders to superannuation may be a period less than 10 years, to be specified in the order or warrant; and also to direct that, in respect of such office or class of offices, the holder may be entitled to superannuation, though he may not hold his appointment directly from the Crown, and may not have entered the service with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners: Provided always, that every order or warrant made under this enactment shall be laid before Parliament.*

Power to Treasury to grant Gratuities in case of short Service.

VII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person who, being the holder of an office in respect of which a superannuation allowance may be granted, is constrained, from infirmity of mind or body, to leave the public service before the completion of the period which would entitle him to a superannuation allowance, such sum of money by way of gratuity as the said Commissioners may think proper, but so as that no such gratuity shall exceed the amount of one month's pay for each year of service.

Power to Treasury to grant Allowances on Abolition of Offices.

VII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person retiring or removed from the public service in consequence of the abolition of his office, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organization of the department to which he belongs, by which greater efficiency and economy can be effected, such special annual allowance by way of compensation, as on a full consideration of the circumstances of the case may seem to the said Commissioners to be a reasonable and just compensation for the loss of office; and if the compensation shall exceed the amount to which such person would have been entitled under the scale of superannuation provided by this Act if 10 years were added to the number of years which he may have actually served, such allowance shall be granted by special minute, stating the special grounds for granting such allowance, which minute shall be laid before Parliament, and no such allowance shall exceed 2-3rds of the salary and emoluments of the office.

Condition of Grant of full Superannuations to public Servants not Heads of Departments.

VIII. It shall not be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant the full amount of superannuation allowance which can be granted under this Act to any person not being the head officer or one of the head officers of a department, unless upon production of a certificate (signed by the head officer of the department, or by two head officers, if there be more than one) that he has served with diligence and fidelity to the satisfaction of such head officer or officers; and in every case in which any superannuation allowance is granted, after the refusal of such certificate, the minute granting it shall state such refusal and the grounds on which the allowance is granted.

Power to Treasury to grant Allowances for special Services, and for Demerits in individual Cases.

IX. Provided, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person any superannuation, compensation, gratuity, or other allowance of greater amount than the amount which might be awarded to him under the foregoing provisions, when special services rendered by such person, and requiring special reward, shall appear to them to justify such increase, but so that such allowance shall in no case exceed the salary and emoluments enjoyed by the grantee at the time of retirement, and the grounds of every such increase shall be stated in a minute of the Treasury, which shall be laid before Parliament; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to grant to any person any such allowance of less amount than otherwise would have been awarded to him where his defaults or demerit in relation to the public service appear to them to justify such diminution.

Evidence of Infirmity of Persons under Sixty.

X. It shall not be lawful to grant any superannuation allowance under the provisions of this Act to any person who shall be under 60 years, unless upon medical certificate to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Treasury that he is incapable, from infirmity of mind or body, to discharge the duties of his situation, and that such infirmity is likely to be permanent.

Persons superannuated under Sixty may be required to serve again.

XI. Every person to whom a superannuation or compensation allowance shall have been granted before he shall have attained the age of 60 years shall, until he has attained that age, be liable to be called upon to fill, in any part of Her Majesty's dominions in which he shall before have served, any public office or situation under the Crown for which his previous public services may render him eligible; and if he shall decline, when called upon to do so, to take upon him such office or situation, or shall decline or neglect to execute the duties thereof satisfactorily, being in a competent state of health, he shall forfeit his right to the compensation or superannuation allowance which had been granted to him.

Persons to retain Right to Superannuation on Transfer to other Employment under the Crown.

XII. And whereas it shall be for the advantage of the public service that officers holding employments entitling them to superannuation allowances under this or other Acts shall be eligible for other public employments at home and abroad, without forfeiting their claims to such allowances:

Every officer already or hereafter to be transferred from employment entitling him to superannuation allowance to public employment under the Crown not so entitling him shall be entitled, on his ultimate retirement from the public service, to the same allowance as if he had continued to hold the vacated appointment and at the same rate of salary as when the same was vacated, subject nevertheless to the conditions which would in that case have been applicable with respect to the grant of such allowance; provided that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury, in the case of officers transferred to governorships and lieutenant-governorships of colonies, and other high offices abroad, conferred for a limited period, to grant such superannuation allowance to such officers on the expiration of such term of service without a renewal of public employment; but any officer to whom such grant is made while under the age of 60 years shall be subject to the same liability to be called upon to fill office under the Crown, as herein provided concerning other persons under that age to whom like allowances are granted.

XIII. Orders, &c., within what time to be laid before Parliament.

XIV. Section 6 of 57 George III, c. 65, respecting pensions to officers having had seats in Parliament.

Acts in Schedule to be construed as referring to this Act.

XV. The several sections mentioned in the schedule hereto of the several Acts of Parliament, also therein mentioned, shall be construed as if this Act, instead of the said Act of the 4th and 5th years of the reign of King William IV, had been referred to in the said sections; and such other enactments as refer to the scale of superannuation allowance established by the provisions hereby repealed of the said Act of King William IV, shall be construed as if the scale established by this Act had been referred to.

Allowances to be paid free from Taxes.

XVI. All superannuations, compensations, gratuities, and other allowances granted or hereafter under this Act to be granted, shall be paid to persons entitled to receive the same without any abatement or deduction in respect of any taxes or duties whatever at present existing, except the tax upon property or income.

Who to be deemed Civil Servants.

XVII. For the purposes of this Act, no person hereafter to be appointed shall be deemed to have served in the permanent Civil Service of the State unless such person holds his appointment directly from the Crown, or has been admitted into the Civil Service with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners; nor shall any person, already appointed to any office, be held to have served in the permanent Civil Service as aforesaid, unless such person belong to a class which is already entitled to superannuation allowance, or to a class in which, if he had been appointed thereto subsequently to the passing of this Act, he would, as holding his appointment directly from the Crown, or as having been admitted into the Civil Service with such certificate as aforesaid, have become entitled to such allowance; and no person shall be entitled to any superannuation allowance under this Act, unless his salary or remuneration has been provided out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or out of monies voted by Parliament.

4 & 5 Will. IV, c. 24, and this Act to be construed together.

XVIII. So much of the said Act of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV, chapter 24,* as is now in force and not hereby repealed, and this Act, shall be construed together as one Act.

Short Title.

XIX. It shall be sufficient, in citing this Act, to use the expression "The Superannuation Act, 1859."

(8.) An Act to make further provision respecting the Superannuation Allowance to be granted to Civil Servants serving in unhealthy Climates.†

39 and 40 Vic. c. 53.—11th August, 1876.

WHEREAS by the Superannuation Act, 1875, provision was made for the grant of special rates of pension to persons who had served in an established capacity in the permanent civil service of the State in unhealthy places, and it is expedient to make further provision for the like purpose:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Unhealthy Places.

1. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury (in this Act referred to as the Treasury) may from time to time by order declare that any country or place therein named shall be deemed, and the same shall thereupon be deemed, for the purposes of the Superannuation Act, 1859, and this Act, to be an unhealthy place.

The Treasury may from time to time by order revoke or vary an order previously made under this section, but the amount of superannuation, compensation, gratuity, or other allowance to be granted to any person serving, before the date of the order of revocation or alteration in the unhealthy place affected thereby, shall be the same as if it had not been made.

2. For the purpose of reckoning the amount of any superannuation, compensation, gratuity, or other allowance to be granted under the Superannuation Act, 1859, to a person who has served in an established capacity in the permanent civil service of the State, two years' service in an unhealthy place shall be reckoned as service for three years, and service in an unhealthy place for any greater or lesser period than two years shall be reckoned in the like proportion.

Provided that nothing in this section—

(1.) Shall alter so much of section two of the Superannuation Act, 1859, as requires a service of ten years before an annual superannuation allowance can be granted; or

(2.) Shall, without the consent of the Treasury, apply to a person who was residing in an unhealthy place when he entered the permanent civil service of the State.

Supplemental.

3. Every order under this Act shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament in accordance with section thirteen of the Superannuation Act, 1859.

4. This Act shall apply to persons who have retired from the public service since the seventeenth day of February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

5. This Act may be cited as the Superannuation Act, 1876, and shall be construed as one with the Superannuation Act, 1859, and that Act and this Act may be cited together as the Superannuation Acts, 1859 and 1876.

(4.) An Act to amend the Superannuation Acts 1834 and 1859; and for other purposes.

50 and 51 Vic. c. 67.—16th September, 1887.

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1.—(1.) Where a person employed in the civil service of the state is injured—

(a.) In the actual discharge of his duty; and

(b.) Without his own default; and

(c.) By some injury specifically attributable to the nature of his duty, the Treasury may grant to him, or, if he dies from the injury, to his widow, his mother if wholly dependent on him at the time of his death, and to his children, or to any of them, such gratuity or annual allowance as the Treasury may consider reasonable, and as may be permitted by the terms of a warrant under this section.

(2.) The Treasury shall forthwith after the passing of this Act frame a warrant regulating the grant of gratuities and annual allowances under this section, and the warrant so framed shall be laid before Parliament.‡

(Civil Service and Consular.)

(3.) Provided that a gratuity under this section shall not exceed one year's salary of the person injured, and an allowance under this section shall not, together with any superannuation allowance to which he is otherwise entitled, exceed the salary of the person injured, or three hundred pounds a year, whichever is less.

2.—(1.) Where a civil servant is removed from his office on the ground of his inability to discharge efficiently the duties of his office, and a superannuation allowance cannot lawfully be granted to him under the Superannuation Acts 1834 and 1859, and the Treasury think that the special circumstances of the case justify the grant to him of a retiring allowance, they may grant to him such retiring allowance as they think just and proper, but in no case exceeding the amount for which his length of service would qualify him under sections two and four of the Superannuation Act, 1859, without any addition under section seven of that Act.

(2.) A minute of the Treasury granting an allowance under this section to any civil servant shall set forth the amount of the allowance granted to him, and the reasons for such allowance, and shall be laid before Parliament: Provided that the Treasury before making the grant shall consider any representation which the civil servant removed may have submitted to them.

3. Where a person at the time he becomes a civil servant within the meaning of this Act is serving the State in a temporary capacity, the Treasury may, if in their opinion any special circumstances of the case warrant such a course, direct that his service in that capacity may be reckoned for the purposes of the Superannuation Acts, 1834 and 1859, and this Act, as service in the capacity of a civil servant, and it shall be so reckoned accordingly.

4. If a person employed in any public department in a capacity in respect of which a superannuation allowance cannot be granted under the Superannuation Act, 1859, retires, or is removed from his employment, and

(a.) The employment is one to which he was required to devote his whole time, and

(b.) The remuneration for the employment was paid entirely out of moneys provided by Parliament, and

(c.) He has served in the employment for not less than seven years, if he is removed in consequence of the abolition of his employment, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organization of the department by which economy can be effected, or for not less than fifteen years if his retirement is caused from infirmity of mind or body, permanently incapacitating him from the duties of his employment, the Treasury may, if they think fit, grant to him a compassionate gratuity not exceeding one pound or one week's pay, whichever is the greater, for each year of his service in his employment.

5. A person shall not be entitled to reckon the same period of time both for the purpose of a superannuation allowance under the Superannuation Acts, 1834 and 1859, and this Act, and also for the purpose of naval or military non-effective pay.

6.—(1.) The Treasury may, within one month after the passing of this Act, frame rules as to the conditions on which any civil employment of profit under any public department as defined by this Act, or any employment of profit under the Government of any British possession, or any employment under the Government of any Foreign State may be accepted or held by any person who is in receipt of or has received any sum granted by Parliament for the pay, half-pay, or retired pay of officers of Her Majesty's naval or land forces, or otherwise for payment for past service in either of such forces, or who has commuted the right to receive the same, and as to the effect of such acceptance or holding on the said pay or sum, and the Treasury may in such rules provide for the enforcement thereof by the forfeiture, suspension, or reduction of any such pay or sum as aforesaid, or of any commutation money or remuneration for such employment.

(2.) Such rules shall also provide for the returns to be laid before Parliament of such officers accepting employment as are affected by the rules, and shall come into operation at the date of the passing of this Act.

(3.) The rules shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament forthwith.

(4.) For the purposes of this section "British possession" means any part of Her Majesty's dominions out of the United Kingdom, and this section shall apply to Cyprus as if it were a British possession.

7.—(1.) Where any sum in respect of pay, pension, superannuation, or other allowance or annuity is due in respect either of service as a civil servant, or of military or naval service, to a person who is a lunatic, whether so found by inquiry or not, such sum may be from time to time applied for his benefit by the prescribed public department in such manner as the department think expedient.

(2.) Where any annuity, whether pension, superannuation, or other allowance, is payable out of moneys provided by Parliament to a person in respect either of service as a civil servant or of military or naval service, and such person is or becomes a lunatic towards whose maintenance a contribution is made out of money provided by Parliament, then as long as the contribution is made his annuity shall be reduced by an amount equal to that contribution, and if the amount of the contribution exceeds the amount of the annuity, the annuity shall cease to be payable.

8. On the death of a person to whom any sum not exceeding one hundred pounds is due from a public department in respect of any civil pay, superannuation, or other allowance, annuity or gratuity, then, if the prescribed public department so direct, but subject to the regulations (if any) made by the Treasury, probate or other proof of the title of the personal representative of the deceased person may be dispensed with, and the said sum may be paid or distributed to or among the persons appearing to the public department to be beneficially entitled to the personal estate of the deceased person, or to or among any one or more of those persons, or in case of the illegitimacy of the deceased person or his children, to or among such persons as the department may think fit, and the department shall be discharged from all liability in respect of any such payment or distribution.

9. The decision of the Treasury on any question which arises as to the application of any section of this Act to any person, or as to the amount of any allowance or gratuity under this Act, or as to the reckoning of any service for such allowance or gratuity, shall be final.

10. Nothing in this Act shall be construed so as in any way to interfere with the rights existing at the passing of this Act of any civil servant then holding office.

11. Every warrant and minute under this Act which is required to be laid before Parliament shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament in manner provided by section thirteen of the Superannuation Act, 1859.

12. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—The expression "civil servant" means a person who has served in an established capacity in the permanent civil service of the state within the meaning of section seventeen of the Superannuation Act, 1859.

The expression "Treasury" means the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

The expression "public department" means the Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, and any of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and any other public department of the Government: and the expression "prescribed public department" means, as respects any matter, the department prescribed for the purpose of that matter by the Treasury.

13. The Act of the session of the fourth and fifth years of the reign of King William the Fourth, chapter twenty-four, intitled "An Act to alter, amend, and consolidate the laws for regulating the pensions, compensations, and allowances to be made to persons in respect of their having held civil offices in His Majesty's service," is in this Act referred to and may be cited as the Superannuation Act, 1834, and that Act and the Superannuation Act, 1859, are together in this Act referred to as the Superannuation Acts, 1834 and 1859.

The said Acts and this Act may be cited together as the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1887, and this Act may be cited separately as the Superannuation Act, 1887.

14. The Acts set forth in the schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent in the third column of that schedule mentioned as from the passing of this Act, without prejudice to anything previously done or suffered in pursuance of the enactments hereby repealed.

junior situations in the Civil Establishments as aforesaid, and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of Her Majesty, and shall have power, subject to the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to appoint from time to time such Assistant Examiners and others as may be required to assist them in the performance of the duties hereinafter assigned to them.

And it is hereby ordered that the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury do prepare and submit to Parliament an estimate for the remuneration of a Secretary to the said Commissioners, and of such Examiners and others as may be required to assist in the performance of their duties.

And it is hereby ordered, that all such young men as may be proposed to be appointed to any junior situation in any department of the Civil Service shall, before they are admitted to probation, be examined by or under the directions of the said Commissioners, and shall receive from them a certificate of qualification for such situation.

And it shall be the duty of the Commissioners, in respect of every such candidate, before granting any such certificate as aforesaid—

- 1st, to ascertain that the candidate is within the limits of age prescribed in the department to which he desires to be admitted;
- 2nd, to ascertain that the candidate is free from any physical defect or disease which would be likely to interfere with the proper discharge of his duties;
- 3rd, to ascertain that the character of the candidate is such as to qualify him for public employment; and
- 4th, to ascertain that the candidate possesses the requisite knowledge and ability for the proper discharge of his official duties.

The Rules applicable to each department under each of the above heads should be settled, with the assistance of the Commissioners, according to the discretion of the chief authorities of the department; but, except that candidates for admission to any of the junior situations in any branch of the Civil Service will be required to obtain certificates of qualification as aforesaid, such Examining Board shall not make any alteration in respect to the nomination or appointment of candidates by those who are or may be charged with the duty of nomination and appointment.

After the candidate has passed his Examination, and received his certificate of qualification from the Commissioners, he shall enter on a period of probation, during which his conduct and capacity in the transaction of business shall be subjected to such tests as may be determined by the chief of the department for which he is intended, and he shall not be finally appointed to the public service unless upon satisfactory proofs of his fitness being furnished to the chief of the department after 6 months' probation.

(2.) ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 4th day of June, 1870;

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is expedient to continue, with certain amendments, the existing provision for testing according to fixed rules the qualifications of persons who may from time to time be proposed to be appointed, either permanently or temporarily, to any situation or employment in any of Her Majesty's Civil Establishments, except as hereinafter mentioned:

I. Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Right Hon. Sir Edward Ryan, now First Commissioner under Her Majesty's Orders in Council of the 21st of May, 1855, and the 26th of April, 1862, and George Webbe Dasent, Esq., Doctor of Civil Law, or such other persons as Her Majesty may from time to time approve in the stead of them, or either of them, shall be Her Majesty's Civil Service Commissioners for testing the qualifications of the persons so proposed to be appointed to any situation or employment in the Civil Establishments as aforesaid, and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of Her Majesty; the said Sir Edward Ryan continuing to be the First Commissioner, and the said George Webbe Dasent being the Second Commissioner; and shall have power, subject to the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to appoint from time to time such assistant examiners and others as may be required to assist them in the performance of the duties hereinafter assigned to them.

II. *And it is hereby ordered, that (except as may be excepted under clause VII. of this Order, and in the Schedule marked B annexed hereto) the qualifications or all such persons as may be proposed to be appointed, either permanently or temporarily, to any situation or employment in any department of the Civil Service shall, before they are employed, be tested by or under the directions of the said Commissioners; and no person (except as aforesaid) shall be employed in any department of the Civil Service until he shall have been reported by the said Commissioners to be qualified to be admitted on probation to such situation or employment.

III. No person shall be appointed to any office or employment in any of Her Majesty's Civil Establishments until he shall be reported by the said Commissioners to have satisfied them—

- 1st. That he is within the limits of age prescribed for the situation or employment to which he desires to be admitted.
- 2nd. That he is free from any physical defect or disease which would be likely to interfere with the proper discharge of his duties.
- 3rd. That his character is such as to qualify him for such situation or employment; and,
- 4th. That he possesses the requisite knowledge and ability to enter on the discharge of his official duties.

IV. The rules applicable to each department, under each of the above heads, shall be settled, subject to the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by the said Civil Service Commissioners and the chief authorities of the department.

V. Except as hereinafter is excepted, all appointments which it may be necessary to make, after the 31st day of August next, to any of the situations included or to be included in Schedule A. to this Order annexed, shall be made by means of competitive examinations, according to regulations to be from time to time framed by the said Civil Service Commissioners, and approved by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, open to all persons (of the requisite age, health, character, and other qualifications prescribed in the said regulations) who may be desirous of attending the same, subject to the payment of such fees as the said Civil Service Commissioners, with the consent of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, may from time to time require; such examinations to be held at such periods, and for such situations, or groups of situations in the same or different departments, as the said Civil Service Commissioners, with the approval of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, shall from time to time determine, and to have reference either to the vacancies existing at the time of the examinations respectively, or to the number which may be estimated to occur within any period not exceeding six months after the commencement of the examinations, as the said Civil Service Commissioners, after consultation with the chief authorities of the various departments, and with the approval of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, may deem expedient.

* The terms of Clause II. are varied by the Order in Council of August 19, 1871 (page 268).

[Clause VI. repealed by Order in Council of August 19, 1871.]

VII. In case the chief of a department to which a situation belongs, and the Lords of the Treasury shall consider that the qualifications in respect of knowledge and ability deemed requisite for such situation are wholly or in part professional, or otherwise peculiar, and not ordinarily to be acquired in the Civil Service, and the said chief of the department shall propose to appoint thereto a person who has acquired such qualifications in other pursuits, or in case the said chief of the department and the Lords of the Treasury shall consider that, either for the purpose of facilitating transfers from the Redundant List, or for other reason, it would be for the public interest that examination should be wholly or partially dispensed with, the Civil Service Commissioners may dispense with examination, wholly or partially, and may grant their certificate of qualification upon evidence satisfactory to them that the said person possesses the requisite knowledge and ability, and is duly qualified in respect of age, health, and character.

VIII. And it is lastly hereby ordered, that the situations mentioned or referred to in the Schedule marked B, hereto annexed, shall be wholly excepted from the operation of this Order, provided that the chief authorities of any department, with the concurrence of the Lords of the Treasury, by notice in the London Gazette, may from time to time add situations to either of the said Schedules, or withdraw situations therefrom, or restore thereto situations which may have been withdrawn.

(3.) ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 19th day of August, 1871.

PRESENT,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Order in Council of the 4th June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, whereby rules were laid down for testing the qualifications of persons proposed to be appointed to situations or employments in Her Majesty's Civil Establishments:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered—

I. In section two of the said Order, the words "until he shall have been reported by the said Commissioners to be qualified to be admitted on probation to such situation, or employment" are hereby cancelled; and instead thereof, the words "until a certificate of his qualification shall have been issued by the Civil Service Commissioners" shall be substituted.

III. A report by the Commissioners under the Order in Council of the 4th June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, that a person is qualified to be admitted on probation to a situation or employment, if given before the date of this Order in Council, shall, for the purposes of this present Order in Council, be deemed to be a certificate of qualification.

(4.) ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of February, 1876.

PRESENT :

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the civil administration of Her Majesty's Government has, of late years, been greatly extended.

And whereas the permanent officers by whom the clerical part of such administration is conducted, although necessarily divided into many departments, have, in a great degree, similar duties to perform:

And whereas, in consideration of the premises, various inquiries have been undertaken, and various measures have been founded upon them, both for the selection and for the classification of the said permanent officers; of which measures the latest is Her Majesty's Order in Council of 4 June 1870, whereby, or by orders and regulations supplementary thereto, the selection of persons for Her Majesty's Civil Service is directed to be made principally by literary competition according to two standards of examination, and the persons so respectively selected are attached either to different offices, or to Higher or Lower Divisions of the same office, according to the examinations passed by them and the duties to be performed:

And whereas it appears from certain recent reports made by the Right Honourable Lyon Playfair and others appointed by the Commissioners of the Treasury to be a Commission for inquiring into various questions connected with the organisation of Civil Departments of the State, that further regulations are required for the division of duties in Her Majesty's civil establishments, and for the selection, pay, and promotion of the officers entrusted with such duties:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. A Lower Division of the Civil Service shall be constituted. It shall consist of men clerks and of boy clerks engaged to serve in any department of the State to which they may, from time to time, be appointed or transferred. *The term "Civil Service" in this paragraph, and the same term, and all equivalent terms, throughout this Order, mean such parts only of the said Service as are comprised in the first and second (excluding the third) of the said Reports.**

2. No department throughout Her Majesty's Civil Service shall be permanently increased or regulated afresh, without providing for the introduction of a system whereby such of its duties as are of a suitable character shall be performed by members of the Lower Division.

3. Such situations in Her Majesty's Civil Service as are not suitable to be filled up by members of the Lower Division are excluded from this present Order, and shall, until Her Majesty's further pleasure is declared, be regulated, as now, by the heads of the departments to which they belong, subject to approval by the Commissioners of the Treasury, and conformably to Her Majesty's Orders applicable to them.

4. Promotions shall continue to be made, and salaries to be paid, in the case of all clerks now serving, in like manner as if this Order had never been issued. But no vacancies shall be filled up, nor any new appointments made in any department, except by appointing clerks of the Lower Division, until the Commissioners of the Treasury have been satisfied that the number of clerks serving in such department with higher salaries than those of the Lower Division is not in excess of the number sufficient to perform superior duties.

5. The Civil Service Commissioners shall at fixed intervals or whenever they may, with the previous approval of the Treasury, declare it to be necessary, hold competitive examinations for men clerks of the Lower Division, in the subjects included in the scheme of examination known as "Regulation II."; and for boy clerks of the Lower Division, in a more limited number of subjects.

Candidates for men clerkships must be over 17 and under 20 years of age. Candidates for boy clerkships must be over 15 and under 17 years of age.

6. Before any such examination is held, the number of permanent clerkships likely to fall vacant within the next six months shall be estimated by the Civil Service Commissioners. This number shall be increased by 10 per cent., and submitted to the Treasury for approval. When it has been approved, the Civil Service Commissioners shall deduct from it the number of unappointed persons (if any) qualified for appointments by previous examinations of the same kind, including examinations under Clause 11 of this Order; and the remainder shall be the number of persons to be selected at the next ensuing examination. This number shall be published as part of the notice of every such examination.

7. A list of the competitors shall be made out, in the order of merit, up to this published number, if so many are found by the examination to be qualified for appointments in the Civil Service.

8. Each competitor named in a list shall remain thereon until he attains the age (if a man) of 25 years, and (if a boy) of 19 years, unless in the meantime he has been appointed to a situation in some public office.

Men on completing their 25th year, and boys on completing the 19th year of their ages respectively, or on receiving appointments, shall be removed from the list.

9. From these lists the Civil Service Commissioners, on the application of departments having vacancies, may supply, on probation, the requisite clerks, whether for permanent or temporary duty. Selections shall, as a general rule, be made by the Civil Service Commissioners according to the order of the names on the lists; but the Civil Service Commissioners may select any clerk who, in his examination, has shown special qualifications for any particular subject, among those included in "Regulation II.," if special application for such clerk be made by any department.

10. No clerk shall remain more than one year in any department unless at the end of that time the head of the department shall signify in writing to the Civil Service Commissioners that the clerk is accepted by the department. If he is not accepted, the department shall report to the said Commissioners the reasons for not accepting him; and such Commissioners shall thereon supply another clerk in his room, and shall decide whether the name of the rejected clerk shall be struck off the list as unfit for the service generally, or whether he shall be allowed a trial in another department.

11. Boy clerks shall not be retained as such in any department after completing their 19th year; but they may, after two years (or, if admitted after 17 years of age, one year) of good service, to be certified in writing by the head of their department to the Civil Service Commissioners, compete under "Regulation II.," among themselves for so many men clerkships of the lower division as shall not exceed one-fourth of the number of competitors.

The number of men clerkships reserved for such limited competitions shall be reckoned as part of the total number to be published, pursuant to Clause 6 of this Order.

Separate lists shall be made out of the competitors

* This clause was modified by Orders in Council of June 27 and December 9, 1876.

† The subjects of examination under "Regulation II." are as follows, viz.:

1. Handwriting.

2. Orthography.

3. Arithmetic to Vulgar and Decimal Fractions.

successful in the limited competitions, and selections for appointments to men clerkships shall (subject to Clause 9 of this Order) be made alternately from these lists and from the lists of competitors successful in the open competitions (Clause 5).

12. Appointments may be made exceptionally to the lower division of clerks from the body of writers serving before 4th June, 1870, if thoroughly qualified, and from those subsequently registered by the Civil Service Commissioners; provided that the age of these latter did not exceed 30 years at the time of their being placed on the register; that at the date of this present Order in Council, they have served as registered writers for a period of not less than three years; that they produce certificates from the head of the department in which they are serving that it is desirable, in the interest of the public service, to retain and employ them in that same Department; and that they prove their fitness by a supplementary examination.

13. The salaries of men clerks in the lower division shall commence at 80*l.*, and shall rise by triennial increments of 15*l.* to 200*l.*. Provided that in any office in which a regular attendance of seven hours a day is required, the commencing salary may be 90*l.*,* and the maximum salary may be 250*l.*

14. The triennial increments of salary to men clerks shall not be allowed in full without a certificate from the immediate superior of each clerk, countersigned by the head of the department, or by such officer as he may designate for the purpose, to the effect that the clerk's conduct has been in all respects satisfactory. In cases of demerit, a part, or the whole of the increment may be withheld or deferred, according to circumstances.

15. The salaries of boy clerks shall begin at 14*s.* per week, and shall rise by 1*s.* per week per annum as long as they are employed.

16. Extra pay, not exceeding 100*l.* per annum, may be attached to certain situations open to clerks of the lower division whose duties involve the superintendence of other clerks, or are otherwise of a more distinctly responsible character than such as the generality of their colleagues have to perform. The number of such situations in each department, and the amount of extra pay, subject to the maximum of 100*l.*, to be assigned to each such situation shall be fixed by the head of the department, with the consent of the Commissioners of the Treasury.

17. Situations carrying extra pay shall be conferred strictly according to positive merit, and not according to seniority.

18. Promotion from the lower to the higher division of the Service shall not be made without a special certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners, to be granted exceptionally, after not less than ten years' service, upon a special recommendation from the head of the department, and with the assent of the Treasury; and every such promotion, including such recommendation, certificate, and assent, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall take effect only from and after the date of such publication.

19. Below the lower division of ordinary clerks (including boy clerks) men and boy copyists may be employed for mere copying, and for routine work under direct supervision, on the same conditions of service as those at present in force for Civil Service writers (men and boys). Whenever it is possible, they shall be paid by piece-work, at rates to be fixed by the Civil Service Commissioners, with the consent of the head of the department, and of the Commissioners of the Treasury.

20. All appointments, promotions, and transfers from one office to another shall be notified to the Civil Service Commissioners as they are made, and shall by them be published together in the number of the London Gazette first issued in each month.

ORDER IN COUNCIL RESPECTING CIVIL SERVANTS WHO MAY BE CANDIDATES FOR SEATS IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

At the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of November, 1884.

PRESENT:

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Minute by the Commissioners of the Treasury, dated the 12th instant, in the words following, viz:—

"The First Lord informs the Board that questions have been asked in the House of Commons whether persons serving in an established capacity in the Permanent Civil Service of the State may, at the same time, announce themselves publicly as Candidates for seats in that House, and may issue political addresses, and speak at political meetings in furtherance of their election.

"The First Lord represents to the Board the grave importance of these questions, and that it is expedient to settle them as regards the establishment of the Treasury, by an express Minute of such a general character as to regulate, without further reference to the Board, whatever particular cases of the kind may arise.

"The First Lord expresses to the Board his own strong sense of the public injury which must be the consequence of any departure from the conditions which, under Parliamentary Government, render a Permanent Civil Service possible, and he points out that, among those conditions, the essential one is that the members of such a service should remain free to serve the Government of the day, without necessarily exposing themselves to public charges of inconsistency or insincerity.

"The First Lord points out that, whatever may be the theoretical difficulty of defining the degree of reserve which these conditions impose upon Civil Servants, it has been solved in practice, as is proved by the rarity of charges of partisanship against members of their body, so that the Board of Treasury is called upon to refer to an unwritten, but operative, law, rather than to declare a new one.

"My Lords find that, as matter of fact, the usage of the Public Departments has been for a Civil Servant, seeking a seat in the House of Commons, to resign his office as soon as he issues his address to the electors, or in any other manner announces himself a candidate.

"My Lords consider that this usage should be binding, and They declare it to be so in the Treasury, and in all other Departments which depend upon the Treasury for the regulation of their discipline.

"The First Lord further states that Her Majesty's Government is agreed upon the substance of his observations to the Board, and that he proposes to cause the result of them to be embodied in an Order to be submitted to Her Majesty the Queen in Council, which, when passed will be binding on the entire Permanent Civil Service of the State."

Her Majesty, having taken the said Minute into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof as applicable generally to Her Majesty's Civil Establishments; and the Chief Authorities of the said Establishments are to take the necessary steps herein accordingly, in respect of all persons serving within such Establishments in an established capacity in the Permanent Civil Service of the State.

His Majesty may grant Salaries to Consuls.

I. WHEREAS the Provision which hath been hitherto made for the Maintenance and Support of the Consuls General and Consuls appointed by His Majesty to reside within the Dominions of Sovereigns and Foreign States in Amity with His Majesty, out of the Money applicable under the Third Class of His Majesty's Civil List, as specified in the Schedule annexed to an Act made in the First Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for the support of His Majesty's Household, and for the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland," is inadequate to the Maintenance and Support of such Consuls General and Consuls; and it is expedient to make further and due Provision for that purpose; be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders to be issued by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to grant to all or any of the Consuls General or Consuls appointed by His Majesty to reside within any of the Dominions of any Sovereign or Foreign State or Power in Amity with His Majesty, such reasonable Salaries as to His Majesty shall seem meet, and by and with such advice as aforesaid, from Time to Time to alter, increase, or diminish any such Salaries or Salary as Occasion may require.

Provision for support of churches and chapels, &c., in foreign ports and places where a chaplain is appointed and maintained by subscription; Consuls authorized to advance for such purpose a sum equal to the amount subscribed.

X. And whereas churches and chapels for the performance of divine service according to the rites and ceremonies of the United Church of England and Ireland, or of the Church of Scotland, have been erected, and proper grounds have been appropriated and set apart for the interment of the dead, in divers foreign ports and places, and Chaplains have been appointed for the performance of divine service in the said churches and chapels, and are now resident in such foreign ports and places; and it is expedient to afford encouragement for the support of the churches and chapels so erected as aforesaid, and to promote the erection of other churches and chapels in foreign ports and places to which His Majesty's subjects may resort, and wherein they may be resident in considerable numbers, for the purposes of trade or otherwise: Be it therefore enacted, That at any foreign port or place in which a Chaplain is now or shall at any future time be resident and regularly employed in the celebration of divine service according to the rites and ceremonies of the United Church of England and Ireland, or of the Church of Scotland, and maintained by any voluntary subscription or rate levied among or upon His Majesty's subjects resorting to or residing at such foreign port or place, or by any rate or duty levied under the authority of any of the Acts hereinafter repealed, it shall and may be lawful for any Consul-General or Consul, in obedience to any order for that purpose issued by His Majesty through one of his Principal Secretaries of State, to advance and pay from time to time, for and towards the maintenance and support of any such Chaplain as aforesaid, or for and towards defraying the expenses incident to the due celebration of divine service in any such churches and chapels, or for and towards the maintaining any such burial grounds as aforesaid, or for and towards the interment of any of His Majesty's subjects in any such burial grounds, any sum or sums of money not exceeding in any one year the amount of the sum or sums of money which during that year may have been raised at such port or place for the said several purposes or any of them, by any such voluntary subscription or rate as aforesaid; and every such Consul-General or Consul shall, once in each year, transmit to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State an account, made up to the Thirty-first day of December in the year next preceding, of all the sums of money actually raised at any such port or place as aforesaid, for the several purposes aforesaid, or any of them, by any such voluntary subscription or rate as aforesaid, and of all sums of money by him actually paid and expended for such purposes or any of them, in obedience to any such Orders as aforesaid, and which accounts shall by such Principal

PAPERS SET AT A LIMITED COMPETITION FOR CLERKSHIPS IN THE FOREIGN OFFICE, 1882.*

DICTATION (Obligatory).

In writing from Dictation, attention should be paid to clear and legible handwriting, to correct spelling, and to proper punctuation.

At 10 o'clock, the troops silently quitted their ground and retired in excellent order, but bad fortune pursued the General throughout this campaign, baffling his prudence and thwarting his views, as if resolved to prove the unyielding firmness of his mind. A terrible storm of wind and rain mixed with sleet commenced as the army broke up from the position; the marks were destroyed and the guides lost the true direction; only one of the divisions happily gained the main road, the other two were bewildered and, when daylight broke, the rear columns were still near the camp. The fatigue, the depression of mind, occasioned by this misfortune, and the want of shoes, broke the order of the march and the stragglers were becoming numerous. Unfortunately, one of the Generals, commanding a leading division, thinking to relieve the men during a nocturnal halt, desired them to take refuge from the weather in some houses a little way off the road. Complete disorganization followed this imprudent act; from that moment it became impossible to make the soldiers of the division keep their ranks, plunder succeeded, the example was infectious, and what with real suffering and evil propensity encouraged by this error of inexperience, the main body of the army, which had encamped for six hours in the rain, arrived at their destination on the evening of the 9th of January in a state very discreditible to its discipline. The Commander-in-Chief, with the reserve and the cavalry, as usual, covered the march, in the course of which he ordered several bridges to be destroyed, but the engineers failed of success in every attempt.

The second passage set for Dictation was similar in character to the first.

COPYING (Obligatory).

Copy, on the form supplied, as much of the following, including the table of figures, as you can in half an hour, taking care to write as well as you can.

Statement of the Quantity of Spirits, in Taxable Gallons, Produced, and Withdrawn Tax-paid, and for Export, from Distillery Warehouses, with the amount of Tax paid on the Spirits withdrawn, during the months of July, August, September, and October, 1874, 1875, 1876, 1877, and 1878.

Answer

[The paper contained 7 other columns, similar to the above.]

ENGLISH COMPOSITION (Obligatory).

Time allowed,  $2\frac{1}{2}$  hours.

In this Exercise attention should be paid to handwriting, spelling, punctuation, grammar, and style. Exercises will be valued according to quality rather than quantity, but should occupy at least two foolscap pages. Only one subject is to be attempted.

Write an essay on one of the following subjects:—

- 1 Coleridge, or Macaulay;
- or,
2. The influence of Patriotism on Poetry.

PRÉCIS WRITING (Obligatory).

Time allowed, 3 hours.

Having read the accompanying Correspondence—

1. Make a short Abstract, Schedule, or Docket of the several letters and other papers.
2. Draw up a Memorandum or Précis, i.e., a brief and clear statement of what passed, not letter by letter, but in the form of a narrative.

N.B.—You are warned that both the Abstract and Précis are obligatory.

DIRECTIONS.

- (1.) The object of the Abstract, Schedule, or Docket is to serve as an Index. It should contain the date of each letter; the names of the persons by whom and to whom it is written; and, in as few words as possible, the subject of it. The merits of such an Abstract are (1) to give the really important point or points of each letter, omitting everything else; (2) to do this briefly; (3) distinctly; and (4) in such a form as readily to catch the eye.
- (2.) The object of the Memorandum or Précis, which should be, not letter by letter, but in the form of a narrative, is that any one who had not time to read the original letters, might, by reading the Précis, be put in possession of all the leading features of what passed. The merits of such a Précis are—(1) to show briefly but clearly the state of affairs and the positions occupied by the principal persons concerned in the correspondence; (2) to contain all that is important in the correspondence, and nothing that is unimportant; (3) to present this in a consecutive and readable shape, expressed as distinctly as possible, and as brief as is compatible with completeness and distinctness.

Brevity should be particularly studied.

The Abstract should occupy 1 or 2 pages only, or 3 at the most.

The Précis about 2 pages, or 3 at the most, of ordinary handwriting.

[The papers placed before the candidates were 20 letters with their enclosures (16 pages) extracted from "Papers on the affairs of Afghanistan, No. 7," presented to both Houses of Parliament in 1879 (C.—2401.)]

La vie est encore si facile à Venise! la nature si riche et si exploitable! La mer et les lagunes regorgent de poisson et de gibier; on pêche en pleine rue assez de coquillages pour nourrir la population. Les jardins sont d'un immense produit; il n'est pas un coin de cette grasse argile qui ne produise généreusement en fruits et en légumes plus qu'un champ en terre ferme. De ces milliers d'isolettes dont la lagune est semée, arrivent tous les jours des bateaux remplis de fruits, de fleurs et d'herbages si odorants qu'on en sent la trace parfumée dans la vapeur du matin. La franchise du port apporte à bas prix les denrées étrangères. La vie animale est donc le moindre sujet de dépense à Venise, et le transport des denrées se fait avec une aisance qui entretient l'indolence des habitants. Les provisions arrivent par eau jusqu'à la porte des maisons; sur les ponts, et dans les rues pavées, passent les marchands en détail. L'échange de l'argent avec les objets de consommation journalière se fait à l'aide d'un panier et d'une corde. Ainsi toute une famille peut vivre largement, sans que personne, pas même le serviteur, sorte de la maison. Quelle différence entre cette commode existence et le laborieux travail qu'une famille, seulement à demi pauvre, est forcée d'accomplir chaque jour à Paris pour parvenir à dîner plus mal que le dernier ouvrier de Venise! Quelle différence entre la physionomie précoccupée et sérieuse de ce peuple qui se heurto et se presse, qui se crotte et se fait jour avec les coudes dans la cohue de Paris, et la démarche nonchalante de ce peuple vénitien qui se traîne en chantant et en se couchant à chaque pas sur les dalles chaudes des quais !

Mais voici le soleil couché, le jour baisse; j'oublie de regarder, ou je regarde vaguement, en proie à une douce rêverie que vient accroître la cloche de l'église qui sonne la fin du jour; les premières étoiles paraissent à travers le feuillage; que sont ces étoiles? Les plus savants astronomes nous disent à quelle distance les planètes sont de notre terre, ils savent lesquelles marchent et quelle route elles suivent; mais voilà où se borne leur science, et, que de travaux, de soucis, d'inventions, de veilles, de calculs, il a fallu pour en venir là. Ces globes de feu sont-ils des mondes comme le nôtre? Oh! alors, mon ami, quelle plaisanterie que les voyages! que signifie de faire plus ou moins de chemin dans un des globes plus nombreux peut-être que le sable de la mer qui gravitent autour du soleil. Vous serez bien fier quand vous aurez fait le tour de notre monde; et il y a là-haut plus de mondes peut-être que vous n'aurez dans vos voyages soulevé de grains de poussière sous vos pieds, et ces mondes-là sont inabornables pour vous; il y a de ces mondes si éloignés, que chacun d'eux ne forme à nos yeux qu'un grain impalpable d'une poussière lumineuse. Il y en a probablement, disent certains savants, qui sont si éloignés de nous, que leur lumière n'est pas encore arrivée à nous depuis l'origine de notre monde, quoique la lumière fasse quatre millions de lieues par minute. A la bonne heure! voilà ce que j'appelle des voyages et des distances; que signifient les deux ou trois mille lieues que vous aurez faites quand vous reviendrez? Vraiment cela ne vaut pas la peine de se déranger.

The probability that any particular person shall ever be qualified for the employment to which he is educated, is very different in different occupations. In the greater part of mechanic trades, success is almost certain, but very uncertain in the liberal professions. Put your son apprentice to a shoemaker, there is little doubt of his learning to make a pair of shoes; but send him to the study of the law, it is at least twenty to one if ever he makes such proficiency as will enable him to live by the business. In a perfectly fair lottery, those who draw the prizes ought to gain all that is lost by those who draw the blanks. In a profession where twenty fail for one who succeeds, that one ought to gain all that would have been gained by the unsuccessful twenty. The counsellor-at-law, who, perhaps at near forty years of age, begins to make something by his profession, ought to receive the retribution, not only of his own so tedious and expensive education, but of that of more than twenty others who are never likely to make anything by it. How extravagant soever the fees of counsellors-at-law may sometimes appear, their real retribution is never equal to this.

Dictation.

Il y eut jadis un navigateur anglais qui accomplit quelques voyages singulièrement audacieux. Les nations de l'Europe cherchaient à découvrir un chemin plus court pour aller aux Indes, soit en se dirigeant vers le nord, soit à travers le nouveau continent américain. Cet Anglais avait déjà fait deux voyages dans ce but, comme employé de Compagnies anglaises. A deux reprises, il avait navigué parmi les bancs de glace, et, malgré le froid terrible, il était parvenu jusqu'au Spitzberg; chaque fois, cependant, il avait dû retrograder, dans l'impossibilité où il se trouvait de pénétrer au-delà. Mais résolu et aventureux autant que jamais, toujours prêt à entreprendre quelque chose de nouveau, dût-il braver le soleil des tropiques ou les glaces du pôle, il continua de nourrir une idée fixe: trouver ce passage aux Indes que tant d'autres avant lui avaient cherché en vain. Le 4 avril 1609, la Compagnie hollandaise des Indes Orientales l'envoya une fois de plus à la découverte. A cette époque, les Hollandais étaient la grande nation commerciale du monde, et Amsterdam le centre du commerce européen. Il n'y avait pas en Hollande une seule forêt propre à fournir des bois de construction, et cependant cette contrée possédait plus de navires que toutes les nations de l'Europe ensemble.

Prædictiones vero et præsentiones rerum futurarum quid aliud declarant, nisi hominibus ea, quæ futura sunt, ostendi, monstrari, portendi, prædici? Ex quo illa ostenta, monstra, portenta, prodigia dicuntur. Quod si ea facta credimus licentia fabularum, Tiresiam, Calchæntem, Helenum, quos tamen augures ne ipsæ quidem fabulæ ascivissent, si res omnino repudiaret: ne domesticis quidem exemplis docti numen deorum comprobabimus? Nihil nos P. Claudii bello Punico primo temeritas movebit, qui etiam per jocum deos irridens, quum cavea liberati pulli non pascerebant, mergi eos in aquam jussit, ut biberent, quoniam esse nollet? Qui risus, classe devicta, multo ipsas lacrimas, magnam populo Romano cladem attulit. Quid? collega ejus Junius eodem bello nonne tempestate classem amisit, quum auspiciis non parvisset? Itaque Claudius a populo condemnatus est, Junius necem sibi ipse conscivit. C. Flaminius Cælius religionem neglecta cecidisse apud Thrasimenum scribit cum magno reipublice vulnere. Quorum exitio intelligi potest, eorum imperiis rempublicam amplificatam, qui religionibus parvisset.

After these victories, Camillus stood forth as the greatest general of his age. But he was accused of having appropriated to himself out of the spoils of Veii many articles of great value, particularly the brazen doors of the Temple of Juno, and of having announced too late that he had made a vow to offer the tenth part of the booty to the Pythian Apollo. It would be a vain disquisition to speculate here upon the guilt or innocence of Camillus; only we must not forget that every Roman general was justified in selecting a portion of the booty for himself; whether in this case Camillus took more than his share, we cannot decide. We must not believe that Camillus did this in secret; he certainly had the doors put on his own house; if he had intended to use them as metal, they would long since have been melted down.

Am 28. November bekamen wir die Insel Tristan da Cunha in Sicht. In seltsamer Einsamkeit ragt der dunkle gigantische Fels aus den grünen Wogen des Oceans gegen Himmel. Ob die Insel bewohnt sei, war uns allen unbekannt. Um so größer war unsere Neugierde, dieses abgelegene Stüchchen Welt zu betreten. Deutlich erkannten wir, als wir uns der Insel näherten, mehrere Gebäude, auch einen in die steile Felsenwand gehauenen Pfad, aber Menschen sahen wir nicht; die Insel erschien wie ausgestorben. Doch nein, dort stieg aus einem der schwarzen Häuser Rauch auf, und endlich erschienen auch einige Männer. Wir winkten ihnen und schwenkten unsere Flagge; sie kamen zu uns, und halfen uns bei der schwierigen Landung. Sie fragten uns, ob wir Walfischfänger seien, und als wir es verneinten, führten sie uns den steilen Pfad an der Klippe herauf auf ein Plateau, auf welchem die Wohnungen standen. Plötzlich festsette uns ein ganz unerwarteter Anblick. Ein hoher Greis, schwarz gekleidet, trat uns mit einer ältsichen Dame entgegen, und als er hörte, daß wir Deutsche seien, warf er die Hände empor und stürzte uns entgegen: „Landsleute,“ rief er im besten Deutsch, „Landsleute! Ist es denn möglich? Gott sei gerühmt, der mich diesen Tag hat erleben lassen!“ Und wie außer sich vor Freude, umarmte er uns, nahm uns mit sich in sein Haus und erzählte uns seine höchst wunderbare Lebensgeschichte.

Alljährlich im Monat Mai, wenn der Frühling seine reiche Blütenpracht entfaltet, beginnt aus den hochgelegenen Bergdörfern der östlichen Schweiz eine friedliche Völkermwanderung ganz eigenthümlicher Art, nämlich von Schaa ren von 8 bis 15 jährigen Kindern. Ihr Zug geht dem Lauf des Rheins entlang. Aus einer Gemeinde ziehen oft 20 bis 30 Kinder aus unter der Führung eines kaum fünfzehnjährigen Knaben. Bis an die Grenze der Gemeinde begleiten sie die Mütter und nehmen dann unter guten Mahnungen und Thränen Abschied. Die Väter sind meist schon zuvor in die Fremde gezogen. In jedem Dorfe, durch das die Kinderschaar zieht, wird Halt gemacht. Männer und Frauen kommen herbei, sich einen Jungen als Viehhirten, oder ein Kindermädchen auszuwählen. So wird die Schaar immer kleiner, je weiter sie sich von der Heimath entfernt. Gerade umgekehrt ist es bei der Heimkehr am Ende des Sommers. Da schwillt die Schaar, je näher sie dem Heimathdorfe kommt. Der spärlche Erwerb, den die Sommerarbeit in der Fremde gebracht, wird gewissenhaft der Mutter übergeben, die daraus den nöthigen Kleiderbedarf für die Kinder besorgt. So gewöhnen sich diese Leute früh an's Wanderleben. Sind sie erwachsen, dann gehen sie über Land und Meer. Aber ihr Herz bleibt doch im Hochland. Zu Hause sterben wollen sie alle.

On being summoned to the Earl's presence, Wayland Smith told his former tale with firmness and consistency. "It may be," said the Earl, "thou art sent by those who have begun this work, to end it for them; but bethink, if I miscarry under thy medicine, it may go hard with thee." "That were severe measure," said Wayland, "since the effect of medicine, and the end of life, are in God's disposal. But I will stand the risk. I have not lived so long underground to be afraid of a grave." "Nay, if thou be'st so confident," said the Earl of Sussex, "I will take the risk too, for the learned can do nothing for me. Tell me how this medicine is to be taken." "That I will do presently," said Wayland; "but allow me to make condition that, since I incur all the risk of this treatment, no other physician shall be permitted to interfere with it." "That is but fair," replied the Earl; "and now prepare your drug."

GERMAN DICTATION.

Das Theater war gedrängt voll. Das neue Stue, das gespielt wurde, hatte eine große Menge Leute herbeigezogen. Da erscholl plötzlich von verschiedenen Seiten der Ruf „Feuer!“ Es kam von dem Hintergrunde der Bühne und erfaßte rasch den Vorhang, der in wenigen Sekunden in hellen Flammen stand. Die Bestürzung und Verwirrung war unbeschreiblich. Alles drängte nach den Ausgängen, deren zum größten Unglück nur wenige waren. Das Gas wurde ausgelöscht, um die Verbreitung des Feuers zu hindern. Aber das half nichts. Im Gegentheil, die Verwirrung wurde nur um so größer, da es nun in den Gängen und auf den Treppen ganz finster war. Man konnte die Ausgänge nicht mehr finden. Durch die von allen Seiten her strömende Menschenmasse wurden die Vorderen die Treppen hinabgestürzt. Nur Wenige gelangten unbeschädigt bis zu den Eingängen, und von da auf die Straße. Andere, die ein Fenster erreichen konnten, stürzten sich auf die Straße hinab. Viele wurden im Gedränge erdrückt, Andere fanden ihren Tod in den Flammen, die Meisten waren mehr oder weniger beschädigt.

Compare then the two measures, O men of England. This which I offer you is plain and simple, the other full of perplexed and intricate mazes. This is mild, that is harsh. This is found by experience effectual for its purposes, the other is a new project. This is universal, the other calculated for certain colonies only. This is immediate in its conciliatory operation, the other remote, contingent, full of hazard. Mine is what becomes the dignity of a ruling people: gratuitous, unconditional, and not held out as a matter of bargain and sale. I have done my duty in proposing it to you. I have indeed tired you by a long discourse; but this is the misfortune of those to whose influence nothing will be conceded, and who must win every inch of their ground by argument. You have heard with goodness, may you decide with wisdom!

PRÆCIS WRITING. (Obligatory.)

Time allowed, 3 hours.

Having read the accompanying Correspondence—

1. Make a short Abstract, Schedule, or Docket of the several letters and other papers.
2. Draw up a Memorandum or Précis, i.e., a brief and clear statement of what passed, not letter by letter, but in the form of a narrative.

DIRECTIONS.

- (1.) The object of the Abstract, Schedule, or Docket is to serve as an Index. It should contain the date of each letter; the names of the persons by whom and to whom it is written; and, in as few words as possible, the subject of it. The merits of such an Abstract are (1) to give the really important point or points of each letter, omitting everything else; (2) to do this briefly; (3) distinctly; and (4) in such a form as readily to catch the eye.
- (2.) The object of the Memorandum or Précis, which should be, not letter by letter, but in the form of a narrative, is that any one who had not time to read the original letters, might, by reading the Précis, be put in possession of all the leading features of what passed. The merits of such a Précis are—(1) to contain all that is important in the correspondence, and nothing that is unimportant; (2) to present this in a consecutive and readable shape, expressed as distinctly as possible; (3) to be as brief as is compatible with completeness and distinctness.

Brevity should be particularly studied.

The Abstract should occupy 1 or 2 pages only, or 3 at the most.

The Précis about 2 pages, or 3 at the most, of ordinary handwriting.

Papers referred to in the foregoing Directions.

Tout à coup, au-dessus de ce lit mouvant des brumes, je vis transpercer et surgir, comme une coque de navire en perdition, une tour noire, au fût de laquelle une volée de cornelles s'élevait en jetant de cris; deux autres tourelles sortirent peu à peu de l'ombre éclaircie, comme si on les avait dépouillées lambeau par lambeau de leur linceul de brume qui retombait à leurs pieds; puis le toit rouge d'un haut et large donjon carré; puis la longue façade grise d'un château démantelé, percé, irrégulièrement de fenêtres hautes ou basses, où le lierre des fossés se cramponnait par touffes aux grillages de fer. Les parapets éboulés de ces fossés trempaient par brèches dans l'eau stagnante qui servait d'abreuvoir aux bœufs et aux poulains; le pont-levis, dont les chaînes brisées et inutiles pendaient comme deux branches de gibet, était remplacé par une chaussée en pierre. Des charrettes dételées et des gerbes éparées en jonchaient le sol. Un paysanne en sabots jetait du grain aux poules sur les marches d'une porte en ogive, dont les écussons mutilés par le marteau de la révolution populaire ressemblaient à un stigmate blanc de boulet sur un mur de rempart. Une seule cheminée fumait en tourbillons d'une fumée noire et épaisse de fagots sur tout l'édifice. Les fenêtres, au lieu de révéler le soleil couchant sur des vitres, dégorgeaient par trous leurs ouvertures ou leurs lucarnes la paille et le foin de la dernière récolte. Des batteurs en grange faisaient entendre le bruit cadencé de leurs fléaux dans la grande salle des gardes.

Un soir nous aperçûmes, à quelque distance de notre campagne, un tourbillon de fumée. C'était le premier indice d'habitation que nous eussions rencontré depuis plusieurs jours. Nous nous dirigeâmes de ce côté, conduits par notre fidèle guide que nulle fatigue n'effrayait. Au haut d'un pic de roc, nous vîmes une tente de Lapon et un troupeau de rennes couché dans le ravin. C'était un charmant spectacle que cette quantité de rennes avec leurs peaux de toute couleur, leurs cornes serrées l'une contre l'autre comme les rameaux d'une épaisse forêt, les unes couvertes d'un léger duvet, d'autres nues et grises, d'autres qui venaient de perdre l'épiderme velu qui les enveloppe au printemps et qui étaient rouges comme le corail. Les chiens, gardiens attentifs du troupeau, annoncèrent notre arrivée par leurs aboiements. Les rennes se levèrent et s'enfuirent comme des biches sur le penchant de la colline, en faisant entendre un léger craquement d'articulations qui ressemble au ptillement d'une fusée au à la détonation d'une machine électrique. Les Lapons vinrent au-devant de nous avec une expression de surprise qu'une demi-fiole d'eau-de-vie transforma aussitôt en bienveillance. La tente était habitée par deux familles qui avaient mis en commun leurs troupeaux, et s'en retournaient à petites journées passer l'hiver aux environs de Hautokeino, après avoir pêché sur les côtes. Les deux hommes portaient un vêtement en peau de renne sale, et leurs femmes n'étaient ni plus élégantes ni plus propres.

Hampden and his friends had taken refuge in the city of London, the fastness of public liberty, and, in those times, a place of at least as much importance as Paris during the French Revolution. The city, properly so called, now consists in a great measure of immense warehouses and counting-houses, which are frequented by traders and their clerks during the day, and left in almost total solitude during the night. It was then closely inhabited by three hundred thousand persons, to whom it was not merely a place of business, but a place of constant residence. This great capital had as complete a civil and military organization as if it had been an independent republic. Each citizen had his company; and the companies, which now seem to exist only for the sake of epicures and antiquaries, were then formidable brotherhoods, the members of which were almost as closely bound together as the members of a Highland clan. How strong these artificial ties were, the numerous and valuable legacies anciently bequeathed by citizens to their corporations abundantly prove. The municipal offices were filled by the most opulent and respectable merchants of the kingdom. The pomp of the magistracy of the capital was inferior only to that which surrounded the person of the sovereign. The Londoners loved their city with that patriotic love which is found only in small communities like those of ancient Greece, or like those which arose in Italy during the middle ages.

L'autre ouvrier, au contraire, est un soldat du travail. Depuis son enfance, il combat, en bataille rangée, contre la nature. Il prodigue sa sueur et son sang à vaincre le chêne et l'acier. Il laboure, il scie, il équivarrit, il rabote, il pètrit dans ses doigts la matière; il gagne jour par jour, sans jamais laisser reposer l'arme du travail, une de ces grandes victoires de l'industrie humaine que je préfère aux victoires de l'empire. Il construit un vaisseau, et ce vaisseau sortira de ses mains, traversera les mers, ira promener la gloire du pavillon à travers les continents, la parole d'amitié du commerce, la conversation des races entre elles, et la paix perpétuelle enfermée dans un simple ballot, sans que la pensée de l'ouvrier reste associée à l'œuvre, sans que le nom du travailleur soit inscrit dans le travail. Le soldat peut dire: J'étais à cette victoire, et cette victoire le patronne partout. Par contre, l'ouvrier ne peut pas dire: J'étais à tel chantier, car un souvenir de chantier ne glorifie personne. Il passe sans assistance, il vieillit sans soutien, il tombe sans secours, il meurt souvent sans inculpation. La société n'a encore jeté aucune coupole dans les airs, pour l'abriter, au crépuscule de sa vie, contre les infirmités.

Wie viele Menschen erlauben sich nicht, ungerecht zu sein, um großmüthig sein zu können! Wie viele gibt es nicht, die, um einem Einzelnen wohl zu thun, die Pflicht gegen das Ganze verletzen, und ungekehrt; die sich eher eine Unwahrheit, als eine Indiscretion, eher eine Verletzung der Menschlichkeit als der Ehre verzeihen, die, um ihren Verstand auszuschnüden, ihren Charakter erniedrigen! Wie Viele gibt es nicht, die selbst vor einem Verbrechen nicht erschauern, wenn ein löblicher Zweck dadurch zu erreichen steht, die ein Ideal politischer Glückseligkeit durch alle Gräuelt der Anarchie verfolgen, Gesetze in den Staub treten, um für bessere Pläne zu machen, und kein Bedenken tragen, die gegenwärtige Generation dem Elende preiszugeben, um das Glück der nachfolgenden dadurch zu befestigen. Die scheinbare Uneigennützigkeit gewisser Tugenden gibt ihnen einen Anstrich von Keinsigkeit, der sie dreist genug macht, der Pflicht ins Angesicht zu treten, und Manchem spielt seine Phantasie den seltsamen Betrug, daß er über die Moralität noch hinaus und vernünftiger als die Vernunft sein will.

In der gesammten modernen Geschichte ist nur noch einmal nach glänzenden kriegerischen Erfolgen ein Friede geschlossen worden, der sich an schonender Milde dem Vertrage vom 20. November 1815 vergleichen läßt: der Prager Friede von 1866. Aber was in Prag aus dem freien Entschluß, aus der weisen Selbstbeschränkung des Siegers hervorging, das führte in Paris der gemessene Argwohn der Verbündeten gegen den kühnsten und rührigsten der Siegesgenossen herbei. Der große Augenblick, da das seit Racheleien so unnatürlich gestörte Gleichgewicht Europas wiederhergestellt, und den Deutschen ihr altes Erbtheil zurückgegeben werden konnte, ward versäumt, weil alle Mächte des Ostens und Westens sich begegneten in dem Entschlusse, die Mitte des Welttheils beständig niederzuhalten. Durch schmerzliche Erfahrungen erkaufte sich die deutsche Nation die Erkenntniß, daß sie die Sühne des alten Unrechts allein von ihrem eigenen guten Schwerte erwarten durfte. Alle die düsteren Weissagungen Hardenberg's, Humboldt's und Gneisenau's gingen in Erfüllung. Die Franzosen empfanden nicht nur, wie billig, die mehrjährige Anwesenheit der fremden Truppen als eine unauslöschliche Schmach; sie nahmen auch den beispiellos milden Frieden für eine grausame Veleidigung. Nicht Saarbrücken oder Landau lag ihnen am Herzen; was sie nicht vergessen konnten, war die Niederlage von Belle Alliance. Nach für Waterloo! dies blieb für Jahrzehnte der Schlagtrauf des französischen Volkes.

I trust that at length the time is come when Parliament will no longer bear to be told that slave owners are the best lawgivers on slavery—no longer suffer our voice to roll across the Atlantic in empty warnings and fruitless orders. Tell me not of rights—talk not of the property of the planter in his slaves. I deny his right—I acknowledge not the property. The principles, the feelings of our common nature, rise in rebellion against it. Be the appeal made to the understanding or to the heart, the sentence that rejects it is the same. In vain you tell me of laws that sanction such a claim! There is a law above all the enactments of human codes—the same throughout the world—the same in all times. Such as it was before the daring genius of Columbus pierced the night of ages—opening to one world the sources of power and wealth, to another all unutterable woe. It is the law written by the finger of God on the heart of man; and by that law men shall reject with indignation the wild phantasy that man can hold property in man.

LORD BROUGHAM.

DICTATION.

In der Geschichte ist Egmont kein großer Charakter, er ist es auch im Trauerspiele nicht. Hier ist er ein wohlwollender, heiterer und offener Mensch, Freund mit der ganzen Welt, voll leichtsinnigen Vertrauens zu sich selbst und zu Andern, frei und kühn, als ob die Welt ihm gehörte, brav und unerschrocken, wo es gilt, dabei großmüthig, liebenswürdig und sanft, ein Charakter der schöneren Ritterzeit, prächtig und etwas Prahler, sinnlich und verliebt, ein frühliches Weltkind — alle diese Eigenschaften in eine lebendige, menschliche, durchaus wahre und individuelle Schilderung verschmolzen, die der verdächtigsten Kunst nichts, auch gar nichts zu danken hat. Egmont ist ein Held, aber auch ganz nur ein flämischer Held, ein Held des sechzehnten Jahrhunderts; Patriot, jedoch ohne sich durch das allgemeine Glend in seinen Freuden stören zu lassen; Liebhaber, ohne darum weniger Essen und Trinken zu lieben. Durch seine schöne Humanität, nicht durch Außerordentlichkeit, soll dieser Charakter unsern rühren; wir sollen ihn lieb gewinnen, nicht über ihn erstaunen.

CONSTITUTIONAL HISTORY OF ENGLAND. (Obligatory.)

2. Show that the struggle between the Crown and the Commons in the reign of James I. and in the reign of Charles I. down to the meeting of the Long Parliament was of a legal rather than a political character.

3. With what objects did Charles II. attack the Corporations, and especially the Corporation of London?
4. When was it settled that the House of Commons was to decide on the validity of election, but that the Courts of Law were to decide on the validity of the claim of an elector to vote?
5. What are the measures that have been at different times adopted to determine the duration or secure the frequency of Parliaments?
6. What were the points of constitutional law at issue in the trial of the Seven Bishops?
7. In what ways did the Habeas Corpus Act secure the liberty of the subject?
8. What are the chief forms which Local Government has assumed in England?
9. What concessions were made to Scotland in order to ensure its acceptance of the Act of Union?
10. What were the modes in which a censorship of the Press was exercised in England so long as such a censorship existed?

6. What had been the chief incidents of the civil war in Portugal when Donna Maria was restored in 1833?
7. Give an account of the following incidents in the reign of the Emperor Nicholas:—(1) the conspiracy at the time of his accession; (2) the Polish insurrection; (3) the assistance given to Austria in Hungary; (4) the rupture with England and France, on which the Crimean war followed.
8. What motives may be supposed to have guided Prince Leopold in refusing the Crown of Greece and accepting the Crown of Belgium?

POLITICAL ECONOMY (Obligatory.) (ADAM SMITH AND MILL.)

Time allowed, 3 hours.

1. What are the chief points in which the "Wealth of Nations" has been supplemented or corrected by later writings? Select any one of these points for detailed comment.
2. "The demand for other things is for so much and no more, but there is always a demand for as much money as can be got."—(Mill). "The quantity of gold and silver is in every country limited by the use which there is for those metals."—(Adam Smith.) Explain, and, if possible, reconcile these two statements.
3. Examine Mill's doctrine that temporary protection may be expedient in "young and rising nations." Which is the wiser way of encouraging trade in such a case—the establishment of protective duties or the donation of premiums for discovery and invention?
4. Compare the view of Adam Smith, that foreign trade is simply a vent for surplus home produce, with the view of Ricardo as explained by Mill.
5. According to the received economical doctrine the rent of land forms no part of the price of grain, or of the cost of production. Does it follow from this that one kind of land-tenure is as good for farming as another?
6. Give your reasons for supposing that the Bank Charter Act of 1844 is, or is not, a safeguard against commercial panic.
7. The Prime Minister of England receives as his official salary only half as much as the Lord Chancellor. Account for this on the principles laid down in the "Wealth of Nations" (Book I.).

8. What is meant by "Equality" as a canon of taxation? Is it better secured (a) by direct taxes, (b) by indirect taxes, or (c) by a combination of the two?
9. What views are indicated by the motto "laissez faire"? How far do we find an approach to them (a) in the "Wealth of Nations," (b) in Mill's "Principles of Political Economy"?
10. What do you consider to be the relation (a) between the rate of interest and the rate of profits, (b) between the rate of profits and the rate of wages.

TELEGRAPHIC ADDRESS :—"ENTROPY LONDON."

The Right Hon. Earl Russell has graciously favoured J. T. Davenport with the following:—

“Extract of a despatch from Mr. Webb, H.B.M.’s Consul at Manilla, dated Sept. 17, 1864:—
“The Remedy most efficacious in its effects (in Epidemic Cholera) has been found to be Chlorodyne,
“and with a small quantity given to me by Dr. Burke I have saved several lives.”

CAUTION.

CHLORODYNE.

Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. WOOD stated that Dr. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, was deliberately untrue, which he regretted to say, had been sworn to. Eminent Hospital Physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely; and mean no other than Dr. Browne’s. —See “Times,” July 13th, 1864.

The Public are therefore cautioned against using any other than

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE’S CHLORODYNE.

This invaluable Remedy produces quiet refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively, using it in great quantities in the following diseases:—

Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Neuralgia, Diarrhœa, Rheumatism, Spasms, &c.

EXTRACTS FROM MEDICAL OPINIONS.

From Dr. MONTGOMERY, late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay:—“Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in neuralgia, asthma, and dysentery; to it I fairly owe my restoration to health, after eighteen months’ severe suffering and when all other medicines had failed.”

From W. VERSALIUS PERTICREW, M.D.:—“I have no hesitation in stating that I have never met with any medicine so efficacious as an anti-spasmodic and sedative. I have used it in consumption, asthma, diarrhœa, and other diseases, and am most perfectly satisfied with the results.”

From Mr. C. RICHARDS:—“Messina, Nov. 23, 1867. My father, the British Vice-Consul at this port, has spoken very highly of Dr. J. Collis Browne’s Chlorodyne in his Report to the British Government of the Epidemic Cholera in Messina, 1867, and really its efficacy is wonderful.”

CHLORODYNE, the GREAT REMEDY for CHOLERA.

See Report in the “Times,” September 6th, from the Malta Correspondent, who states, August 24th, that “108 cases and 81 deaths occurred at Messina; 50,000 people fled from the town, which is in a most deplorable condition; that Chlorodyne has been found most efficacious as a remedy, and a number of persons are reported to have been saved by its use.”

Now, as there are various imitations sold under the name of Chlorodyne, containing Indian hemp, morphia, &c., ingredients highly adverse to the cure of cholera, the public are cautioned against the use of any compound under the name of Chlorodyne unless it bears the name of Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE, who coined the word Chlorodyne to designate his wonderful discovery, which he fully tested for many years in Her Majesty’s service before introducing it to the public, the wonderful success of which has given rise to various imitations, totally different to genuine Chlorodyne. See the decision of Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood, reported in the “Times,” July 13th, 1864. The extraordinary medical reports on the efficacy of Chlorodyne render it a subject of most vital importance that the public should obtain the genuine, which is now sold under the protection of the Government of Great Britain, authorizing a stamp, bearing the words “Dr. J. Collis Browne’s Chlorodyne,” without which none is genuine.

PATENT DUPLEX PRESS.

SIMPLICITY, DURABILITY, CHEAPNESS, POWER.

For Stamping Notarial, Official, Corporate, and other Seals, &c.

MESSRS. HARRISON & SONS, Wholesale Stationers, Parliamentary Printers, &c., beg to call attention to the Patent Duplex Press, for Stamping Notarial, Official, Corporate, and other Seals, &c., which for portability, durability, power, and simplicity of construction, and consequent cheapness, is unrivalled.

So little force is needed to work the Patent Duplex Press that it requires no fixing, and a stand is not necessary ; it may be placed on an ordinary table or desk.

It is constructed without screw or springs, the power being produced by a cam acting on a bell crank lever. From the extreme simplicity of its mechanism, it can be supplied at one-half the price of an ordinary screw press.

The Patent Duplex Press can be fitted with a lock, so as to prevent its being used by an unauthorized person.

THE CHROMOGRAPH.

THE CHROMOGRAPH is an ingenious invention which enables any one to produce a number of copies from MSS. written with a special ink supplied with the Apparatus, and is, therefore, invaluable to those who are often requiring reproductions of their letters, invitations, despatches, circulars, plans, or drawings, fifty fac-similes of which can be produced in a few moments, without any knowledge of Printing or Lithography being required. The Apparatus consists of two flat metal boxes lined with a gelatinous composition, which answers the same purpose as the stone in Lithographic Printing, and these cases are separable and close together in the shape of a book.

The MS. to be copied is written on any kind of paper, and with any pen (either steel or quill), with the ink supplied, and the writing or drawing, being perfectly dry, is placed face downwards on the composition and the hand passed lightly over it two or three times, the paper is then pulled gently off (in the same manner as shown in the illustration above), and a fac-simile counterpart of the writing or drawing will be found transferred to the composition. A sheet of paper of any kind is then laid upon the composition and smoothed down lightly with the hand, and after two or three seconds is withdrawn in the same manner as before mentioned, and a clear and perfect copy of the original will be found printed upon it. This operation is repeated as often as required, from eight to ten minutes only being required to produce forty to fifty copies.

Immediately the requisite number of copies are printed, fill the sponge supplied with the Apparatus with clean cold water, and rub the surface gently, and the writing will be speedily effaced, as easily, in fact, as pencil writing from the surface of a porcelain slate.

If the composition is at any time accidentally scratched or broken, it can be remelted by heating it and allowing it to cool, care being taken to prevent dust from settling on it when in a liquid state.

This Apparatus has been supplied and found most useful to Merchants, Secretaries, and most of H. M.'s Ambassadors, Consuls, and Agents abroad.

Beaconsfield, An Appreciative Life of

THE LATE EARL OF. A Statesman of "Light and Leading," with Portraits of his Contemporaries. Edited by CORNELIUS BROWN, F.R.S.L., &c. This work is copiously illustrated with Etchings, Engravings, and with 25 Permanent Photographs of Eminent Conservatives, including the whole of the late Beaconsfield Ministry. To say nothing of the value and interest of these elegant volumes, in their costly illustrations, and the superior style in which they are presented for Publication, as containing An Appreciative Life of one of the most distinguished public men of whom our country can boast in the present eventful century of its annals, they will be found, it is believed, to have an attractiveness for the British Public generally, and for British Conservatives in particular, such as perhaps no similar Biography of modern times can be said to possess.

LETTER FROM SIR STAFFORD H. NORTHCOTE.—"30, St. James's Place, S.W., August 17, 1881. —DEAR SIR,—I have read the First Part of your Life of Lord Beaconsfield with much interest, and think that it promises extremely well. If, in the course of your work, you wish for any information which I can give you, pray do not scruple to ask for it.—Faithfully yours,

"CORNELIUS BROWN, Esq."

"STAFFORD H. NORTHCOTE."

Other eminent politicians, and those newspapers to whom copies of the First Part were sent for perusal, have written in laudatory terms.

Burke's, Sir Bernard, Peerage, Baronet-

AGE, KNIGHTAGE, &c., for 1888. 50TH EDITION. This Peerage and Baronetage is the only one extant which combines, in one volume the full genealogical or past, as well as the present, account of all the Peers and Baronets of the realm. The Baronetage, incorporated with the Peerage, is complete in every detail as to the Lineage and present condition of each Baronet and his family. The Knightage has been much enlarged by the introduction of the family connections of the Knights of the several Orders of the Knights Bachelors and of the Members of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council. Precedence.—This important subject has been fully dealt with, and the Lists may be relied on as authoritative. The Peers, Baronets, and Knights, and the Companions of the several Orders of Knighthood are placed according to their relative rank; and there is given a Scale of General or Social Precedence, and a List of the Maids of Honour to the Queen, with their relative Precedence. Tables of Precedence of Diplomatic Agents; Relative Rank of the Officers of the Navy and Army; and Precedence in the Colonies, the Dominion of Canada, and the Indian Empire are also supplied. There will also be found official Lists of THE ORDER OF THE INDIAN EMPIRE, THE ROYAL ORDER OF VICTORIA AND ALBERT, THE IMPERIAL ORDER OF THE CROWN OF INDIA, THE VICTORIA CROSS, THE ALBERT MEDAL, and THE ROYAL RED CROSS. The heraldic department includes not only the engravings of the arms of both PEERS and BARONETS, but also the written blazon or descriptions. To this work is added a Key, or Comprehensive Alphabetical List, by means of which every titled personage, and many others, can be easily traced. Nearly 2,000 pages, super royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £1 18s.

"While most other publications of the kind form most useful indexes to the living members of the Aristocracy, Sir Bernard Burke's handsome volume is perhaps the most useful and valuable companion to the student of English History."—Times.

"The foremost place among works of reference is claimed, almost by traditional right, by Sir Bernard Burke's 'Dictionary of the Peerage and Baronetage,' which still remains the Standard Authority as to Aristocratic Lineage."—Whitehall Review.

"Constant reference to the pages of 'Burke' enables us to testify to its invariable accuracy. For completeness and comprehensiveness on all matters connected with Titles of honour it is unsurpassed."—Court Journal.

"An indispensable companion to all classes."—Illustrated London News.

Burke's, Sir Bernard, Landed Gentry

of Great Britain and Ireland, being a record of the Lineage, &c., of about 4,500 Families, with a description of their Arms, Crests, &c. SEVENTH EDITION. Thoroughly Revised throughout, 1886. This edition of the Landed Gentry has been compiled from communications made by the chiefs and heads of families from their private papers, traditions and genealogies. The great aim has been to arrive at accuracy, and, in order to attain this end, every available source of information has been exhausted, and a correspondence carried on which has secured many thousands of communications from those most competent to improve and correct the work. Apocryphal statements, which had crept into former editions, have been expunged, erroneous particulars and incorrect descents discovered and omitted, and some memoirs excluded as being no longer associated with the possession of landed property. In two volumes, uniform with "The Peerage," "General Armory," &c. 2,088 pages, super royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £3 3s.

"A work of this kind is of a national value. Its utility is not merely temporary, but it will exist and be acknowledged as long as the families, whose names and genealogies are recorded in it, continue to form an integral portion of the English constitution."—Post.

Burke's, Sir Bernard, Sovereigns of

of England, Scotland, Ireland, and Wales. Comprising a registry of Armorial Bearings from the earliest to the present time. This work contains above 66,000 Blazons of the Arms of Families, Companies, Cities, &c., with mottoes arranged in alphabetical order. This Work having engaged the personal attention of the Editor for a considerable period of time, will be found most valuable not only to the Student of Heraldry and those personally interested in its pages, but to all who are brought into connection with the subject by their professions—such as Engravers, Silversmiths, Coach Builders, Die Sinkers, &c. Uniform with "The Peerage," "The Landed Gentry," &c. 1,280 pages, super royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £2 12s. 6d.

"The work may indisputably claim to be one great authority on all things heraldic."—Illustrated News.

"By the publication of this splendid volume, Ulster King of Arms completes the structure of information which he has been so long engaged in rearing, and in whose construction he has displayed not only the accuracy and research of the herald, but the generalization, the appreciation of the historian."—Morning Post.

"Indispensable to the Army, Navy, and Auxiliary Forces."—Saturday Review.

"A more useful manual it would be difficult to find."—United Service Magazine.

"Rivals 'Whitaker' in the completeness with which it deals with its subject. There appears to be no item of Service information which is not to be found in its pages, and it is sure to prove a most acceptable boon."—Whitehall Review.

"The first thing that strikes us, on looking at this Almanack, is astonishment that it has never occurred to any one to bring out such a book before. The more credit, therefore, to the gallant editor or editors who have at last given us an Almanack worthy of all the Services."—Army and Navy Magazine.

"THE SERVICE ALMANACK is the best shilling's worth of information connected with the Services we have seen for a long time. It contains a little of everything, and a good deal of many things. The 'Year's Journal,' and the 'Dictionary of Battles' are most useful for reference, and the list of the winners of all honours during the year a novel and excellent idea. The editing is excellent throughout."—United Service Gazette.

"A work of reference which is sure to be handled constantly during the year. The list of members of both Houses of Parliament who are serving or have served in Her Majesty's Forces strikes us as particularly useful."—United Service Magazine.
